

PCC to hold annual Harvest Festival

The Rock Creek Campus of Portland Community College will hold its annual Harvest Festival on Saturday, Oct. 30, from 10 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The suggested donation is $3 per family, which includes, as long as the supply lasts, a free pumpkin from the Rock Creek Campus pumpkin patch. In addition, visitors gain free admission to the Washington County Museum.

Along with the popular pumpkin patch, the festival will include hayrides, a petting zoo featuring animals from PCC's Rock Creek farm, musical entertainment, a fall plant sale from the greenhouses of the Rock Creek Landscape Technology program, and the opportunity to have your picture taken with your pumpkin.

The campus is located at 17705 N.W. Springville Road, at the 185th Avenue exit from the Sunset Highway. Parking is free. For more information, call 503-614-7379.

Golden Dragon Acrobats to perform

A treat is in store when the Chinese Golden Dragon Acrobats take the stage at Pacific University's Taylor-Meade Performing Arts Center in McCready Hall on Saturday, November 6, at 7:30 p.m.

Continuing a 27-century-long performance tradition, the troupe mixes acrobatics, traditional dance, spectacular costumes, and ancient and contemporary theatrical techniques to present a show of breathtaking skill and spell-binding beauty.

The members of the company, trained since youth, have garnered international acclaim, and delighted audiences of all ages. The Chinese Golden Dragon Acrobats have performed in all 50 states and over 65 countries.

To reserve tickets, call the Pacific University Box Office at 503-352-2918. Tickets are $22 or $16 for children under 12.
