viewing interactive exhibits and puppet shows that teach about cows and the nutritious products that they produce.

"While the zoo does not exhibit cows in its Family Farm, Moo at the Zoo highlights the importance of farm animals in our lives, from the milk we drink to the yogurt we eat and even cheese on pizza," said Charis Henrie, the zoo's education coordinator.

Moo at the Zoo is free with zoo admission.

The zoo opens at 9:00 a.m. daily and is located just off Highway 26. It is also accessible by MAX light rail line.
