Sheriff's Citizen Academy accepting applications

Part of Washington County Sheriff Rob Gordon's continuing effort to promote and preserve a safe community through quality service and citizen involvement, includes the Citizen Academy, a 50-hour training program that combines classroom and "hands-on" instruction. The classes provide an opportunity to observe how the Sheriff's Office works, and include activities such as using police equipment, participating in jail activities and in several role-playing scenarios.

Participants will tour the Sheriff's Office, and other criminal justice facilities and, because the academy is an interactive program, student questions and comments are encouraged throughout. Personnel from many departments will explain and demonstrate the duties and responsibilities of their jobs.

Topics covered in the academy include officer selection and training, various duties within the Sheriff's Office, jail operations, security, investigations, tactical operations, use of firearms, vice and narcotics, communications, crime scene investigations and crime prevention.

The next Citizen Academy begins September 13 and runs through November 8. Classes are held Tuesday evenings, 6:00 p.m.- 9:30 p.m., with two weekend classes during each session. Classes are typically held in the training rooms at the Sheriff's Office, 215 SW Adams Avenue in Hillsboro.

Participants must be at least 18 years-old and live in Washington County. They must also attend at least nine of the eleven classes offered to qualify for graduation. Each academy is limited to 35 students.

For more information contact Darlene Schnoor at 503-846-2694 or by email at darlene_schnoor@co.washington.or.us. Applications are available on line or at the Sheriff's Office in Hillsboro and at the East Precinct, 3700 SW Murray Blvd., Beaverton.
