

Several interesting spots open for volunteers

Washington County is seeking volunteers to serve on the following advisory committees:

Arts, Heritage and Humanities Coalition (WCAHHC) administers distribution of state funds received by Washington County from the Community Cultural Participation Grant Program of the Oregon Cultural Trust. A competitive process is used to distribute the funds to Washington County organizations and artists to address priorities identified in the Washington County Cultural Plan. (4 terms to expire, plus 3 current vacancies)

Public Safety Coordinating Council (PSCC) coordinates local criminal justice and juvenile justice policy. Makes recommendations for the use of state resources for public safety purposes. (5 terms to expire, plus 1 current vacancy)

Rural Roads Operations and Maintenance Advisory Committee (RROMAC) studies rural road operations and maintenance concerns in Washington County, works with County staff to develop program and funding alternatives and makes recommendations to the Board of County Commissioners. (7 terms to expire)

The application deadline is December 5, 2005 or when all vacancies are filled. Applications may be obtained from the website: <http://www.co.washington.or.us/cgi/boards/com-mis.pl> or by calling 503-846-8685.

Commission members are volunteers appointed by the County Board of Commissioners. Members must be residents of Washington County.

County offering many online services

Washington County has introduced a central Web site menu from which the public (both private citizens and businesses) can make payments, find public information, download government forms and contact government representatives. For example, on-line transactions and communication reduces the amount of paperwork, streamlines the process and reduces the time required to pay for County services. Work is continuing on this site to make it easier for the citizens and businesses of Washington County to interact with the County.
