

Smith takes the crown as Jamboree Queen

Sahrina Smith was chosen as the 2006 Vernonia Friendship Jamboree Queen at the Coronation ceremony held on August 4, at the Scout Cabin.

Smith was one of four princesses, the other three were Bekah Peerson, Alanna Ogden, and Samantha Lee.

The Princess Court acted as Vernonia ambassadors around Columbia County at various events, including a parade in St. Helens on June 17 and then spent three swelteringly hot days at the Columbia County Fair & Rodeo.

Heidi Ferguson, of Vernonia, was the coordinator and chaperone for the Princess Court and put in countless volunteer hours helping the young ladies prepare for their duties, raise money and find sponsors for the program.
