

Vernonia schools collect 2,822 pounds of food for Vernonia Cares

Vernonia students and staff collected 2,822 pounds of donated food during the school district's annual food drive for Vernonia Cares.

Middle school and high school leadership classes, with teachers Cathy Ward and James Brookins spearheaded the effort, holding class competitions and other activities.
