Coast Range. Join Lynette "Bloomers" Rothwell and Sandy "Firefly" Creson for a presentation about the lifestyle of mountain women and how they survived in Oregon's early forests. They will explore the types of clothing worn, the "tools" they used (including muzzleloaders) and how the American Indians provided items through trade and influenced clothing styles.

March 4 will be the date for Bluegrass Open Jam, at 1:00 p.m. Our monthly bluegrass jam is a celebration of the settlers who lived in the hills and mountains and composed music about their day-to-day life several open theft cases.

The VPD is taking measures to respond to the thefts using available resources. We ask for community help as well. Watch out for yourself and your neighbors by reporting suspicious activity, suspicious vehicles, and suspicious people. Try to make a note of time, date, descriptions, and license

Murphy's St. Patrick's Day Parade will be Saturday, March 17, and will include a sumptuous Corned Beef and Cabbage feed and Irish family festival. This community event benefits the Boys and Girls Club of Hillsboro.

The celebration will begin with staging at 9:00 a.m. in the parking lot across from Hare Field, on NE Grant Street in plates. It may not seem too suspicious at the time, but the information could be invaluable later if a theft is discovered. If you have been a victim of a theft we encourage you to report it to the proper agency. Even if the items stolen were just scrap or of little value, we need to know. Your report may allow us to fill in missing pieces of this extremely large puzzle.

Hillsboro. The parade will leave Hare Field at 11:00 a.m., continue east to Cornell Road, turn south on Main Street, west on Main to 2nd Ave, north on 2nd to Grant Street, then east back to Hare Field.

The party continues with the Corned Beef and Cabbage Feed sponsored by Sports Look, with Irish-themed music and dancing and games for the kids. These activities will take place in the new Civic Center between 1st and 2nd on Main in downtown Hillsboro.

There is a $20 parade entry fee. Entry forms for the parade have been mailed to all previous participants. If you do not receive an entry form or would like to be in the parade for the first time, entry forms are available at many Hillsboro businesses or at Murphy's Furniture in Cornelius.

Call Murphy's Furniture for more information, 503-640-1124.
