you can provide the VPD with information only. The information you provide may be a key lead in an investigation.

As always, remain vigilant in your neighborhood and watch out for your neighbors. Report or make a note of suspicious activity as well as reporting incidents, even relatively minor incidents. The largest and most important resource the VPD has is our citizens. What we lack in manpower we supplement with watchful citizens.

Thank you to everyone who takes the time to watch out for your neighbors.
