

Tickets are now on sale for Dallas Brass concert on February 1

The Vernonia Schools Band Program Dallas Brass concert has been relocated to Portland. Thanks to a very generous donation by Sunset Presbyterian Church, the Vernonia Band Boosters will be hosting the internationally acclaimed Dallas

Brass on Friday, February 1, at 7:00 p.m. at Sunset Presbyterian Church. The church is located at 14986 NW Cornell Road, Portland.

The Vernonia Band Boosters have been awarded a $1500 grant from the Columbia County Cultural Coalition to help defray costs to host the Dallas Brass on February 1. Band Director Robert Izzett said this is a real vote of confidence from the county coalition, and a real boost to the Vernonia Schools Band program.

The Dallas Brass includes an unprecedented educational component with each performance to educate and inspire local student musicians. The music students of Vernonia Middle and High School, as well as qualifying students from other school districts, will spend the afternoon with the Dallas Brass musicians in rehearsals and clinics, then take the stage to perform with the Dallas Brass during the evening performance. "This will be an evening of music this community will not soon forget," says Michael Levine, Dallas Brass founder and trombonist.

American Musical Journey is fun, lively, and entertaining – perfect for the entire family. Tickets can be purchased at Vernonia School District Office or Creatures Pet Shop or by emailing vernoniabands@gmail.com. Tickets for Adults (19 and over) can be purchased for $10, for Students and Senior Citizens the cost is $8.
