CARD OF THANKS

To our many friends and family; We have been blessed and uplifted by your prayers during Jennie's illness. The outpouring of cards, letters, and condolences since having lost our dear mother, and grandmother, has been overwhelming and inspirational at the same time. Our most sincere thanks to one and all, and especially St. Mary's Church parishioners, Vernonia Cheerleaders, and the Lindauer family.

Sincerely,

The Dennis Family

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice of Public Meeting Columbia County Hazard Mitigation Plan

Wednesday, August 13, 2008. The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) is providing technical assistance to Columbia County to facilitate the update of our existing natural hazards mitigation plan to a multi-jurisdictional hazard mitigation plan. The following jurisdictions have designated steering committees, completed the hazard screening process, and gathered data to analyze the risk associated with the hazards affecting the people and property in the following jurisdictions: Columbia county, St. Helens, Columbia City, Scappoose, Clatskanie, Rainier, Prescott, and the Vernonia area.

All interested parties are encouraged to attend one of the three informational sessions presenting the results of the risk assessment. This opportunity for public participation is designed to describe: the planning process to date; natural and technological hazards identified to occur in your community people and property at risk from each hazard; goals your community wants to achieve; and mitigation actions or projects your community can implement to reduce or mitigate the risks associated with the haz-
