

Columbia Co. construction permits are now on line

Obtaining construction permits in the Columbia County area just got easier — and a lot more convenient. As of Friday, February 20, Columbia County joined 29 other Oregon building departments in offering one-stop shopping for over-the-counter mechanical and electrical permits at www.BuildingPermits.Oregon.gov.

The site allows contractors to apply and pay for multiple permits from multiple building departments through one convenient Web site, at any time of the day or night, including workdays, weekends, and holidays.

“Columbia County is pleased to be able to offer online permitting to contractors. This means that what we have called ‘over the counter’ permits for electrical, mechanical and plumbing work, can now be obtained online from the convenience of the contractor’s office,” said Todd Dugdale, director of Land Development Services for the county. “Customer service is our top priority and Quick Permits is one way to demonstrate that it is important to us.”

The Department of Consumer and Business Services’ Building Codes Division hosts the Quick Permits e-permitting site, which makes simple permits available at any hour of the day, from any computer connected to the Internet. Contractors can apply and pay for multiple permits from multiple jurisdictions in one transaction.

“We love the service. It saves so much time,” said Joni Hacker of Ludeman’s Fireplace Shop in Beaverton. “We can get our authorization to begin work within a minute or two. Not having to write a check and mail it in is a real convenience. We recommend it to other contractors working in Columbia County.”

The development of e-permitting is part of Governor Kulongoski’s regulatory streamlining initiative. The Governor signed House Bill 2405 into law in March 2007. The law expands Quick Permits to create the nation’s first comprehensive statewide e-building permit program, which will allow contractors to conduct more building department activities, such as receiving plan approval and scheduling inspections online, morning, noon, and night with any city or county in Oregon that participates.

County jobless rate jumps to 10.2

Columbia County’s seasonally adjusted unemployment rate rose to 10.2 percent in January, a significant increase from the previous month (9.4%) and the year before (5.7%). The rate was about the same as the statewide rate (9.9%) but higher than the na-

SBA scam alert warns businesses

The U.S. Small Business Administration issued a scam alert February 19, warning small businesses not to respond to letters that claim to have been sent by the SBA and asking for bank account information in order to qualify the business for federal tax rebates.

The fraudulent letters, on what appears to be SBA letterhead, were sent to small businesses across the country, advising recipients that they may be eligible for a tax rebate under the Economic Stimulus Act, and that SBA is assessing their eligibility for such a rebate. The letter asks the business to provide the name of its bank and account number.

These letters were neither sent nor authorized by the SBA, and businesses receiving them are strongly advised not to respond to them.

The scheme is similar in many ways to e-mail scams seeking personal data and financial account information that enable another party to access an individual’s bank accounts or to engage in identity theft.

The SBA is working with the SBA Office of Inspector General to investigate this matter. The Office of Inspector General asks that anyone who receives such a letter report it to the OIG Fraud Line at 1-800-767-0385, or e-mail at OIGHotline@sba.gov.
