

Dr. Jamal Masalmeh in his examination room.

Full service eye clinic conveniently located in Vernonia

Vernonia Eye Clinic opened in December 2008 and business has started picking up for Optometrist Dr. Jamal Masalmeh. Dr. Masalmeh graduated from Pacific University in 2003, then worked in Hillsboro, Portland and one year in South Dakota, before opening his own office in Longview and then expanding here to Vernonia.

Vernonia Eye Clinic offers eye exams and has a dispensary with a good selection of frames at the office to fit everyone from infants up. Glasses take about a week to arrive, and contacts are available in the office or within 2-3 days.

Dr. Masalmeh can also handle about 80-90% of eye infections, eye diseases and eye injuries, and can refer to an ophthalmologist for those that can't be handled here. "When I came here I really wanted to offer full service," Masalmeh stated.

Masalmeh wants to expand his selection of frames even further, and get more equipment to meet his stated goal, "My ultimate mission is to give good service to the community and make sure people's eyes are healthy, and people don't have to travel so far."

If you need eye exams or care, Vernonia Eye Clinic is open Monday, Wednesday and Thursday for appointments and Monday through Thursday for scheduling and information. Located at 622 Bridge St., the number to call for an appointment is 503-429-7000.

DEDICATION: Effort was from the heart

out, Standley said, when he "Thought of the idea of log rounds with memorial plaques," and ended up with the memorial. "What people put into this was from their heart – I did and so did everyone else...This was a heck of a project and we had a blast building it," Standley continued. The crowd reacted enthusiastically to Standley's idea of holding an annual event at the memorial.

After the dedication ceremony, a lunch featuring BBQ beef, salmon, oysters and a spitroasted pig – with all the trimmings – was served up. Most of those attending went through the memorial building at some point during the day, and their approval of the memorial could be read on their faces.

There's room for more memorial plaques, and volunteers are needed to man the memorial when it is open. Contact Denise Dethlefs at 503-324-2422 for more information. Applications for plaques are on the website: www.camp18restaurant.com.
