

Vernonia Police Officer Connor promoted to Sergeant

The November 2 Vernonia City Council meeting started with an executive session to discuss employee performance. The media is not allowed to report on discussions held during executive session. After the session, City Administrator Bob Young announced that Police Sergeant Mike Kay's promotion to captain has been approved but postponed. See related article on page 1.

The pinning ceremony for Officer Mike Conner's promotion to sergeant was held, with Mayor Sally Harrison congratulating Conner and apologizing for the delay in his ceremony.

Council approved new fees that the Vernonia Justice Court will begin adding to convictions. There will be a $25 fee added to each traffic violation and a $50 fee for each criminal violation. Ordinance 861, approved in July, allowed for these fees to be set up and used only for police training purposes.

In other business, council;

- approved housekeeping changes to Resolution 842 regarding the composition of the Public Works Committee.

- heard that Young will be investigating dead tree removal and tree thinning at Ora Bolmeier Park.

- held a preliminary study session on proposed uses for properties the city will acquire from flood buy-outs. Further meetings, including public input, will be scheduled.

The October 19 City Council meeting was short, only about one hour, with two decisions made by council. One decision was to change the name of Vernonia Airfield back to Vernonia Municipal Airport. The other decision was to approve a contract with Hoss Paving for work on Washington Street.

The next meeting of the Vernonia City Council will start at 7:00 p.m. on November 16, at Vernonia City Hall.
