teacher or insurance agent, I would without hesitation consider hiring any of the other three [Democratic] candidates for their expertise in these fields.

However, it's vital that we hire (vote for) someone with an economic/employment background because our citizens need jobs, and the County needs economic development.

Consider that when the Timber receipts income goes away in the near future, the County will be even more hard-strapped for dollars.

I am not suggesting that Shawna will be able to wave a wand and cure these problems, but with 8 years as an economist for the State Employment Office and a degree in economics, she certainly will have more
