

Columbia 9-1-1 employees earn honors from their peers

The Board of Directors of the Columbia 9-1-1 Communications District has announced that four district administrative employees were honored by three professional associations this spring.

Data Specialist Sue Reedy was presented the award for Outstanding Contribution to SafetyNet CAD by an Individual, at the 2010 International SNC Annual Conference in Newport, California. Reedy has been instrumental in the development of a regional CAD-to-CAD interface that is a model for interoperable communications. Reedy has also made significant contributions to integrating the Environmental Systems Research Institute (ESRI) ArcMap product for use with SafetyNet CAD. She celebrated her 26th year with Columbia 9-1-1 this year.

Administrative Services Manager Nancy Edwards, and Office Support Specialist Maryjo Beck received the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award from the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA). In order to receive this award, the budget document must meet increasingly stringent criteria as a policy document, as an operations guide, as a financial plan and as a communications medium. This is the eighth year in a row Columbia 9-1-1 staff have been honored with this award. Excerpts from the document, such as activity statistics and District history, may be found at www.columbia911.com.

Administrator Sally Jones received the Special Districts Association of Oregon (SDAO) 2010 Outstanding Special District Service Award, honoring her service to Columbia 9-1-1 Communications District, SDAO, and for various industry involvements over her 37-year career.

“We are very proud of our administrative staff,” said Board President Dee Wooley. “They work as a team, focused on providing the highest level of service to our citizens and assuring that public revenues are carefully used to promote efficiency and effectiveness.”

In addition to Columbia County, the participating agencies are Sunset Empire Transportation, Tillamook County Transit, Benton County Rural Transit, and Lincoln
