 munities' leaders and citizens, the visible support for the cause of peace conservation in our county has been unprecedented.

At the spaghetti feed dinner Thursday, January 12, in support of the fallen chief's family, law enforcement, fire service, public safety volunteers and the general public gathered in droves to help raise funds for the family. More than 1,000 people ate spaghetti, salad, focaccia bread, and a plethora of desserts and stood in general awe of the support for Chief Painter – and not only for him and his family, but for the causes he lived and died for; for the liberties he died fighting to protect.

I spoke with a number of public safety professionals in attendance, including the two Clatskanie Police officers involved in the
