Workman on 2011 Regatta court

Five high school students have been chosen to represent the North Coast for the 2011 Astoria Regatta Association. They join 2010 Queen Rachel Tadei of Knappa High School. Throughout the season the court will be attending parades, giving speeches, and making appearances. Escort and chaperone for the court will be Don and Teresa Accuardi. The theme of this year's Regatta is "Happy 200th Birthday Astoria!" The festival will take place August 11-14, 2011.

The court is made up of:

- Bethany Workman, formerly of Vernonia, the daughter of Mathew and Tessy Workman, is a junior attending Warrenton High School. She is on the Warrenton honor roll and has lettered in track. Bethany is a People to People Ambassador. She has helped local police departments with activities that include National Night Out, various parades, and collecting donations for Special Olympics. She has worked on the food drive for the local food bank and was an altar server for St. Mary's Catholic Church, in Vernonia. She previously worked at Black Bear Coffee, in Vernonia, and is now working as a courtesy clerk for Fred Meyer in Warrenton, and as a sales associate for Zumiez in Seaside.

- Jessica Helligso, the daughter of Shawn and Miranda Helligso, is a junior attending Astoria High School.

- Rebecca Alfaro, the daughter of Greg and Joni Alfaro, is a junior at Astoria High School.

- McKenzie Peters, the daughter of Jerry and Renee Painter, is a junior attending Seaside High School.

- Meg Dowaliby, the daughter of Todd and Dixie Dowaliby, is a junior at Warrenton High School.

Look for the court in the Vernonia Jamboree Parade.
