

Fire destroys pickup, camper trailer south of Vernonia

A fire destroyed a pickup and camper trailer belonging to an Aloha-area man yesterday afternoon, September 6 at approximately 3:40 p.m., on Highway 47, about five miles south of Vernonia, according to the Oregon State Police.

Stephen Siebert, 53, from Aloha, driving a Ford F350 pickup pulling a camper trailer, was southbound on Highway 47 near NW Johnson Road, when a fire started for an unknown reason. Siebert, who was the lone occupant, stopped and got out of the pickup as the fire quickly spread, but wasn't able to grab any personal belongings.

The fire quickly engulfed the vehicles and spread to roadside brush over an approximate 200 foot area, before being controlled by personnel from Banks Fire Department and Oregon Department of Forestry. The vehicles were a total loss.

Right, pickup and camper trailer were both a total loss in this fire on September 6. Picture courtesy OSP.
