

Mayor Josette Mitchell gives Matthew Brady, the newest Vernonia police officer, the oath of office at the Vernonia City Council meeting on November 21.

Vernonia has a new police officer

The Vernonia City Council met on November 21 and December 5 for their regularly scheduled meetings.

The first item of business on November 21 was swearing in the newest police officer, Matthew Brady. After taking his oath of office, Brady's wife, Kris, pinned on his new badge. Brady, who had been a North Plains Reserve Officer, will be going to the police academy in January to earn his certification.

Mayor Josette Mitchell reported that there will be no council meeting on December 19; the next meeting will be held January 3, 2012. She also told council that City Hall will be closing at Noon on December 23 and will be closed Monday, December 26. City Hall will close for the New Year's holiday at Noon on December 30 and will reopen on Tuesday, January 3.

In other business, the council:

- heard from Mitchell that Sally Harrison has resigned from the Airport Committee, the Economic Development Committee and the Vernonia Community Learning Center Committee. Councilor Bruce McNair stated that he would "like to thank Sally for all the work she's done for the city."

- unanimously denied a request for an extension to a previous six month approval for a recreational vehicle in the yard of the Vernonia Community Church.

- authorized City Administrator Bill Haack to investigate alternative SDC (System Development Charges) structures that might promote new home construction.

The next Vernonia City Council meeting will be on January 3, starting at 7:00 p.m. at city hall.
