

Sheriff seeks help with theft at quarry

The Columbia County Sheriff's Office responded to the Eagle Star Rock Products Quarry, 35365 Hankey Rd., St. Helens, on December 12, after thieves broke in and stole copper wire and damaged equipment totaling more than $15,000 in losses to the company.

The Sheriff's Office believes more than one suspect is involved in the theft and criminal mischief. The doors were kicked in, locks cut, and a large rock crushing machine was rendered inoperable when the heavy copper wiring used to power the machine was stripped from it. Other equipment and wiring were also taken or destroyed.

"The suspects were believed to be driving a vehicle, possibly a small pickup with a left tire that left a different tread pattern than the other three tires," said Sheriff Jeff Dickerson.

Anyone with any information regarding this crime is encouraged to call the Sheriff's citizen call line and leave the information on the recorded line at 503-366-4698.
