

Vernonia council says, "No fee for school sewer/water hookups"

Mayor Josette Mitchell, and Councilors Bruce McNair and Donna Webb were enough to make a quorum for the April 16 Vernonia City Council meeting. Councilors Randy Parrow and Kim Tierney had given notice of their inability to be at this meeting.

The council unanimously approved a motion waiving the water and sewer hookup fees for the school district. These fees had not been included in discussions with the school district before the project began and it would require an engineer to determine the correct amount to charge.

City Administrator Bill Haack received approval from council to contract with Tetra Tech to update the city's Master Capital Plan and assess the System Development Charge (SDC) fee schedule. Tetra Tech did the original work on these in 1999 and it is recommended that they be updated every 4-10 years. Since it has been longer than that, Haack estimated that starting over with another company could cost $150,000, but having Tetra Tech update these items is estimated at $10,000.

Council also authorized Haack to request a six month extension on a DEQ Clean Water State Revolving Fund Application. If it is not extended, the application time frame will run out before the city has received final plans for the upgrades they may need these additional funds to complete.

Police Chief Michael Conner presented a request from Bill Sword to change part of the one-way road around Anderson Park into a two-way street from Jefferson Ave. to the bridge over to the Sword place. Conner suggested that this would better facilitate Sword being able to move big equipment off and onto his property. Council had no problem with occasional use of that road for heavy equipment (with appropriate flagging), but balked at a change that would allow regu-
