

Between the Bookends

Affair by Michael Kardos, which begins with three friends making a routine stop at a convenience store. When, moments after entering the store, one of the men emerges dragging a young woman with him as he shoves her in their car and shouts: "Drive!" Suddenly these three men are holding a frightened girl hostage without the slightest idea of what to do next. For these friends, three days will decide their fate—between freedom and prison, innocence and guilt...and life and death. Other new acquisitions for adults include The Racketeer
