L. C. Eastman was engaged with his automobile to take a passenger to Mt. Angel last Monday evening, but his passenger proved to be a bold, bad man.
He knocked Mr. Eastman on the head, took what money he had from his pockets (about $75) and skipped out, leaving his victim near the old Liberal University building physically and mentally wandering around in the road.
The robber has not been found.
