Prof. H. R. Cox, county superintendent, of Tacoma, Wash., returned Monday after a short visit with friends and relatives in the Silverton Hills. Mrs. Cox and her two daughters, Misses Mary and Andora, remain for a season and are now visiting at the E. S. and John Porter homes.
Mrs. Cox will be remembered by the old settlers here as Miss Anna Weller.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dahl are here from Portland. He reports his family all well and doing well.
Victor and Alvid are working for the Eiler Piano House in Portland, and Carl for the same company in Seattle. Mary is married and lives in Los Angeles, and Annie and her husband live in Portland. Mr. Dahl's friends are glad to see him looking so well and to know of the family's prosperity.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs.
Digerness entertained for her mother in honor of Mrs. Lucy Bartholomew, Mrs. O. Olson and Miss Egadahl, who leave for their home in Thor, Iowa, after two months' visit here. Those present were: Mrs. Geo. Nelson, Mrs. C. Olson, Mrs. A. Knutson, Mrs. A. Bartholomew, Mrs. P.
Jacobson, Mrs. A. Stalker, Frankie Bartholomew and Miss Baker, of Salem.

Two beautiful young damsels from the superb suburb of Oregon City, Gladstone, stopped a few days at ye editor's home this week and jollied up the poor old scribe until he almost cracked his countenance endeavoring to keep from smiling. We tried to find out some of the religious ideas of the fair ones, but only succeeded in learning that one had a "feller" by the name of Sam, and that the other's name is Murriael. (Mule for short.) If we can sell out here in Silverton we may take a notion to move to Gladstone so as to be near the Chautauqua.

We are very sorry that it is impossible to fill the enormous list of orders we had for our issue of August 1st, containing the account of the escape of the nun from Mt. Angel. All this week the orders come steadily pouring in, and as we write this, two men just left the office much disappointed because they could not secure a number to send to friends, and as they departed we opened a letter from Lebanon with the same story.
One woman offered 25 cents to be a subscriber for one copy, but was refused. The best we can do, friends, is to put the whole thing in a little booklet, which will be ready in a few days. The price will be 10 cents. Order now if you want one.
