THE STRANGLE HOLD OF CATHOLIC FAITH

 truth is that reading at all by the masses has been discouraged, even the bible itself having been forbidden at one time under severe penalties.

Notice that the quotations given do not apply to the church at all but are used to boost the church rather than Christ, God, righteousness, truth or anything else.

The whole story is that the Catholic Church has the true faith which is faith in the Catholic Church and they say that they received it from Christ himself, they seem to think is sufficient.

Never be ashamed of the truth would be better advice than never to be ashamed of any church or its practices, for Churches may and do become corrupt, its practices may get to be like Rev. Schmidt's marriage ceremony and method of divorce and the priesthood may become a den of thieves. Beware of the false and slavish teachings of such Catechisms and warn the poor helpless children!

 Irrigation is something we need not mention. It is practically unknown in this part as we have ample rain fall, and the character of the soil requires no irrigation.
