BASKET BALL NEWS.

Last Saturday Silvertown defeated Albany with the score standing 56 to 20. The Albany boys were fine fellows and well-built, but were "not in it," with our trained champions. Our boys evidently felt sorry for their neighbor kidlets and put two of our second team players on in the second half. But Silvertown just can't help beat everything in sight on their own floor especially.

The game that was filled with the Corvallis team was cancelled by Corvallis on account of examinations in the O. A. C., etc. They promise to come over and give us a trial some time in the near future.

Tomorrow night we will play the Roseburg aggregation, who are said to have beaten everything in sight in their "neck o' the woods." "Let 'er buck!"

The Children's Hour.

At 3:30 p. m. Saturday Silvertown children from 5 to 10 years of age will be entertained at the West Room library with stories about the wren and the chickadee, the dandelion and daisy, a little poem about the organ grinder's monkey and a fairy story. This work for the children is of very great importance and every lover of the children and their future work and happiness will rejoice and appreciate the efforts of the good promoters.

Why Don't You?

A farmer who was carrying an express package from a city mail order house, was accosted by a local merchant: "Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express and besides you would have been patronizing a home store, which helps pay the taxes and builds up this locality." With characteristic frankness, the farmer asked: "Why don't you patronize your home paper and advertise? I read it and didn't know you had the goods, I have here, nor do I ever see your name in the paper, inviting me to come to your store."

AWAKE, SONS OF FREEDOM.

Awake, ye sons of freedom!
 Arouse ye in your might!
 Arm in defense of liberty,
 Make ready for the fight.

An unseen foe is lurking near,
 A serpent in disguise,
 Though clad in vestments of the cross
 A cloven foot he hides.

Awake, ye sons of freedom,
 Before it is too late,
 Arouse this sleeping nation
 To its impending fate.

Break down the vaunted power
 These religious minions claim
 Before the inquisition
 And stakes are raised again.

Awake, ye sons of freedom!
 Shake off this lethargy
 And help to make our public schools
 The bulwark of the free.

To all the people of the world
 Send out this proclamation:
 No king, no pope or religious sect
 Shall rule this mighty nation.
 —Christian Advocate.

CAPITAL CITY IS VERY DRY.

Temperance People of Oregon Are Gaining a Great Victory.

The recent victory of the temperance forces at the Capital of Oregon is very significant and The Journal man feels proud of his work and record as a fighter against the dove evil when he thinks of the many hard-fought battles with the saloonatics and blind-piggers. He now realizes that the work has not been in vain. Salem is not only dry, but it is dry to stay, for the abolition of the saloon is a part of the city charter.

Now let the good work be carried into Portland, the great metropolis and the stronghold of vice.

"And let us not be weary in well-doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

LETTERS OF ENCOURAGEMENT.

Oakland, Cal.

Mr. Hosmer:
 Dear Sir: Enclosed find three subscriptions for your paper for one year, $3.00. Send two dozen booklets, "The Escaped Nun From Mt. Angel." Enclosed find $8. Keep balance for your defense fund. I got the first issue of your paper about two weeks ago; have not received any since. Please get my address right, as follows.

Albany, Oregon.

Dear Editor:
 I wish to become a regular subscriber to your Journal, so enclose the remainder of the dollar. As I have only sent 25 cents to you, I enclose 75 cents. I am handing out the Journals to others and think it will bring you other subscribers. I think all anti-Catholics should take your paper.

With best wishes for your success, I am very sincerely,

Editor Silvertown Journal:
 A large per cent of our friends and neighbors are taking the Menace, a Missouri paper which makes one shiver to read many of the things it publishes about Romanism. My sister gave me some blanks to fill out for your paper, so thought if I took the paper and passed them around after I read them, maybe it would help a little.

Emporia, Kansas.

Mr. J. E. Hosmer, Silvertown, Oregon.

DEFENSE FUND.

Friends of Liberty and Truth, this is your fight as well as ours. We will never surrender, but we are up against a big battle in the form of a $50,000 damage suit, and a criminal libel suit by the Roman Catholics.

We have been boycotted by law breakers, threatened with death by fanatics, and thrown into the street bodily for telling the truth, and are now where we actually must have help, or this very essential work for higher and better things can not continue. No one will ever know how much the few friends whose names appear in this "Defense Fund" have really helped us, for it is too long a story to tell here; but keep it coming, and the greatest thing ever accomplished in the United States by any little country newspaper will soon be recorded in The Silvertown Journal.
