Anderson and his brother A. G. Anderson went to Portland on business Thursday. There is no "breaking up" of spring in Silverton, like there is in the north, central and eastern states. Silverton ladies get two new subscribers and we will make you a present of a dandy new broom. W. R. Smith is reported to be worse at the hospital in Salem, fever complications having set in. Don't forget to send us the names of the patriots of your town. We want to send them sample copies. Mrs. Dr. Loar and Mrs. S. E. Richardson were passengers on the Salem morning train Wednesday. Mrs. F. M. Evenson and her little daughter were passengers on the Salem train Tuesday morning. Church, the candy man, is the only place to get the pure and delicious sweets. Jennings Smith, Dr. Kleinsorg and Attorney Van Valkenberg were passengers for Salem Tuesday morning. Glasses fitted by Drs. Lowe and Turner do not need the guarantee that goes with them. "There's a reason." At 11:30 p. m. Monday night central notified Night Watchman Kilian that he was wanted at the Anderson hotel. Mr. Kilian and T. J. Davis hurried to the scene, but the four Greeks who were talking of breaking the door with an ax, made their get away and all was again quiet. T. L. Sullivan was visiting old-time friends here last week, returning to his home at Stevenson, Wash., Tuesday. Don't forget Church's Candy Store, opposite the opera house, when you want real, pure, home-made sweets. Everybody is glad to see Glen Loomis back at his old stand in the Appeal office again. He arrived Monday. The fine improvements in the Peoples Bank building is a good thing for the whole city. Hurrah for our corner! If you want a Gravity Hand Cultivator this spring, order it now, of J. The second of the series will be given next Sunday evening. Something new and nifty in the way of towels, dresser scarfs, center-pieces, handbags and pillow tops at The Shop. George Mingers and Dick Dixon have taken charge of the blacksmith shop on the corner of Lewis and First streets. Give the boys a boost. Mrs. M. M. Sayer's son, Arthur Ward, of Portland, got homesick to see his mama and he, his wife and baby came up from Portland and stayed over Sunday. Last Sunday, while Mrs. Wm. Moore was at church, and William was also away, some one broke into their house and stole a lot of clothing. No arrests have been made at this writing. Found.—In front of Journal office, a gold cuff-button, with initial letter. Show mate, pay for this ad. and take the button. These are busy days in the Willamette valley. Some are running motorcycles, some autos, some wheelbarrows, some are running blind pigs and some just running a bluff. I have some sawmills and timber land to exchange for most anything of good value, or to sell at a discount, as parties are wishing to retire from business and get in town. Come in and see me, or write. H. E. Brown, Box 145, Silverton, Oregon. After four months waiting, J. E. Myers, of The Journal force, has at last received his household goods from Des Moines, Iowa. Just such things as this only hastens "government ownership," and especially when the charges and over charges are becoming almost unbearable. H. E. Brown is certainly a cracker-jack to sell property. A Coos county 160-acre farm, a large hotel in Twin Falls, and a Silverton cottage home went last week and several other deals are just about to be closed. T. H. Brokke, accompanied by Mrs. Brokke and their little daughter, as far as Portland, started for Hill county, Idaho Tuesday. Mr. Brokke has three sons who have each taken up 320 acre homesteads in that booming country. Parties who borrowed my pitchfork, brace and bits, clevises, etc., might bring them back, as they were old heirlooms and I'd like to keep them from getting rusty. Harry Desart. 19c19. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hepburn went to Woodburn Thursday on a visit, and then expected to go to Canada Friday. Mr. Hepburn has worked in the Fischer Flouring Mills here for two years and has made many friends. J. J. Oeder and Harvey Lincoln started overland with team to Myrtle Creek via Drain Tuesday. For Sale.—Pure blood Rose-Comb Rhode Island Red eggs, $1.00 per setting of 13. Ed R. Adams, South Water Street. 13c21. Rev. Richard F. Fischer, minister of the Unitarian church of Salem, will conduct services in the interest of Liberal Christianity Sunday evening at 7:45 in W. O. W. hall. All friends of liberal religion and of progressive thought are cordially invited to these services. Bring your friends. Words comes that our little sister, Mrs. Ida Dedrick, has been elected president of the W. C. T. U. in her home town, Sumpter. Good! With our Silverton sister, Mrs. T. E. Preston, president of the W. C. T. U. here, and with ourself taking some little interest in blind pigs, and slime pigs and pigs with curly tails, we feel confident that the whole Horse-eme family will give as far as horse heaven, anyway. B. R. Benson, who has been quite sick of late, owing to complications which necessitated an operation, was taken over the first part of the week and Wednesday night was so much worse that many of his friends feared that he would not live the night through. At this writing Mr. Benson is somewhat improved and hopes for his early recovery are entertained by his many friends. Call at Hotel Anderson Thursday, March 19th and let Drs. Lowe and Turner examine your eyes. They are specialists and being graduates of the best schools, coupled with years of hard practical experience, makes them safe persons for you to consult. Their glasses cost you no more than the ordinary kind usually sold, and you have the benefit of their skill and professional guidance. One charge covers entire cost of examination, frames and lenses. They will be in Mt. Angel Wednesday, March 18th, Silverton Thursday, March 19th. Don't forget the date. They have no agents, they do not go from house to house. In our hurry last week we forgot to mention the Shadow Social of the Yeoman lodge, which was a success. The total receipts were about $15. W. A. Cross is still in Portland at the Good Samaritan hospital, after his second operation for stomach trouble. Mrs. Cross writes from there that he is very sick and suffering much pain, but that he went through the operation fine. A picture received from Mrs. Ida Dedrick shows the snow piled up in the streets of Sumpter, almost as high as the buildings. The picture was taken about a week ago. It is hard to realize here in Silverton, with our green grass and beautiful flowers, birds and warm sunshine, that there are mountains of snow in other parts of our state. THE UNITARIAN MESSAGE. The voice of reason and of faith combining in the larger hopes of life and of human possibility is the Unitarian message. Religion to be vital and helpful must combine the knowledge and facts of science, with the light of reason and of faith, with the beauty of art in the promotion of the highest interests and holiest hopes of life. Whatever may have been men's notions and ideals of religion in past ages, whatever forms and symbols and methods may have been part of the magical systems of old, religion today is beginning to mean life, rather than form. If religion is the highest expression of the primary spiritual impulse of life, so also is life—the higher spiritual life—the chief purpose and object of religion, pure and undefiled. Religion is beginning to mean and to emphasize "the inner life" more and more. We are growing into a clearer conception of that precious life-teaching of Jesus, who made "the inner kingdom" the key and cornerstone of all real and true deliverance. The finding of "inner reality," of the living presence of the spirit (which giveth life) leads to the knowledge of truth and of God, by which alone is freedom, by which alone is the higher liberty, by which alone is the higher joy of the spiritually liberated life, which is the true Christian life. First the inner kingdom, all power in addition. Truth is the eternal rock and foundation, even as Love is the divine power in and of the gospel of Jesus by which hearts and souls of men are to be freed from shadows of bondage, ignorance, superstition, idolatry poverty and death. THE PASTOR. WHIRLWIND SPEAKER COMING. Anti-Saloon League to hold meetings in Silverton Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. All meetings to be held in the Christian church. Rev. J. G. Adams is to be the chief speaker. Mr. Adams is a whirlwind temperance orator, one of the best mimics on the temperance stage, a rich vein of humor often convulsing his audience with laughter, permeates his lectures. He has a power of holding a crowd that few men possess. He is a natural born actor and orator and has been styled by the press as the Dynamic Temperance and Prohibition Evangelist of America. He can make you laugh and he can make you cry. This estimate has been taken from quotations from various newspapers of Texas from which state he hails. The Anti-Saloon league will be a big factor in putting Oregon dry this year. Don't miss these lectures. LEON L. MYERS, Christian Minister. BETHANY ITEMS. Mrs. Adams met with a bad accident Saturday when riding to town. The horses became frightened and Mrs. Adams jumped from the rig. She received a broken leg and was badly shaken but went to Salem in the evening. The Bethany Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. Nada Grinde February 28, 1914. An excellent lunch was served and a pleasant time had by all. It was decided to meet next at the home of Mrs. Anderson March 14. Donald Bowen had a bad accident Sunday. He was at the Pearl Berns farm when kicked in the back by a horse, receiving two broken ribs and being severely bruised but is now improving. Miss Ella Pieltt is very sick with pneumonia. Charles Howell has so far recovered from his attack of rheumatism that he is able to be out. REAL ARISTOCRACY. There is only one true aristocracy—the aristocracy of intellect. The aristocracy of ancestry is an open admission of degeneracy. It is the expression of a lofty conceit, unsupported by a grain of worth. It is builded on a foundation of putrefying bones and flesh and the stench of it fills the nostrils of the world. It is a twin to that other nefarious aristocracy—that of Wealth. The Aristocracy of Dollars is vulgar in the extreme. It is also coarse, brutal and obscene to the last insufferable degree. It measures all men by dollars and cents and shouts out its pharisaical superiority in loud living, noisy display and vulgar ostentation. It brutally humiliates poverty upon every occasion. It prides itself upon its own great superiority and it contemptuously outrages the feelings of all those who are less fortunate. It has no comprehension of right as Right. It regards nothing as wrong that can be bought with money. It is a corrupting influence that violates all that is best and noblest in humanity. It is the unfeeling and ignorant progeny of a brutal business system that neither encourages intellectual worth nor rewards virtue. Money Aristocracy is the half-sister of Harlotry, and both measures all values by the same standard. Both prostitute themselves to the same end.—Justice. To the Chain Gang: Send in as many names of friends of freedom as you can. We want to send them sample copies and sub. blanks. Do it now!

ORGANIZATION OF GOD() Editor Silverton Journal: I have seen the great army of unemployed of the city of Portland—thousands of honest workmen eager to make an honest living, who are denied the right. I don't believe suffering humanity can stand the strain much longer. I believe we are on the verge of establishing a great co-operative commonwealth, and I believe it will burst on the nation like a tidal wave. This unjust system will be crushed. Any person with sound reason knows that it allows a few men to become millionaires while two-thirds of the producing class are in an actual, dire condition for want of the necessities of life. This is not right. The profit system should be abolished and a great co-operative commonwealth established. Under the law of God and nature, a few men have no right to control all the wealth and means of production, live in luxury and ride in palace cars, while the men who built the railroad and the cars and produced all the wealth of the land, tramp the ties in hunger, misery and want. Brother Hosmer, I want to whisper something in your ear: "Forget the Catholic church." If a religious organization is wrong and sinful, it will die. If it is right, it will prevail. I don't believe there is an organization of God under the sun that has not brought light and glory to humanity. Your talent as a journalist, a reformer and a writer is too great to waste in trying to disrupt an organization of Christ. EDWIN A. LINSKOTT. WHY I SEND AWAY FOR MY GOODS Some time ago I read several articles in one of the Silverton papers which found a good deal of fault with people who send away from their home town for groceries and other things. I made up my mind that there must be something behind these articles and so I concluded to try the experiment of sending away for things myself. I did so, and to my astonishment, I saved from 30 per cent to 40 per cent above all expenses and received the same or better goods than I could get at home. This is the reason I send away for my goods, and I believe it will help build up our home town fully as much as though I gave the 30 or 40 per cent to the other fellow. Yours for the Prosperity of the People. P. J. TALSATER. Wanted—Angora Goats. A carload of Angora does, not over six years old, with kids by their sides. Also have orders for mixed lots.
