OBITUARY

Grandma Hartman died at the home of her daughter, Miss Jennie Hartman, near Scotts Mills, Oregon, September 24th at the age of 85 years.

Mrs. aHrtman was one of the early pioneers of Oregon, having come from the East many years ago. Besides the sons and daughters she leaves many friends who will sadly miss her.

While we can not help but mourn the kind, loving mother and friend, we can not wish her back. Her mission here is fulfilled and the promise of a reward for those who are faithful are hers as she rests in peace by the side of her husband who preceded her 22 years ago.

Silverton, Ore., September 23, 1914.

Silverton Journal,
Silverton, Ore.

I am writing this in behalf of the Editor, who is now serving out a sentence of one hundred days in the Marion County, Oregon, Jail, rather than commercialize principles.

Dear Journal readers, J. E. Hosmer is as innocent as any man on earth of any willful act, which could be construed to be "Libel." I have known him personally for about two years, and know him to be a man full of principle, loyal to truth and would die rather than give up to falsehood and slander.

Those who have known Mr. Hosmer personally can say no less about him, and tell the truth. However many do not seem to regard truth as a virtue, are ready and willing to say all manner of things which they know to be untrue.

Mr. J. E. Hosmer merits the respect and friendship of all true men and women.

J. E. Blazer,
Secretary Socialist Local.

A BIG BARGAIN!

One acre, half in clover, 8-room house, city water in the yard, good well, 40 young fruit trees, 15 old ones, chicken house, fine Jersey cow, 35 chickens, grapes, good barn—everything for only $3250. Easy terms. No better bargain in Silverton! See the Cascade Real Estate Co. over the Journal office.

The Experiment of reducing the price of this paper to 50 cents per year for a period of 30 days has proven such a success that we have concluded to make the reduction permanent. Keep them coming in bunches! It is the correct answer to the hierarchy's prosecutions and falsehoods.
