

LOCAL NEWS

T. E. Preston, the electrician, has had large contracts in Molalla and will be in that thriving burg the rest of the week.

Mrs. E. S. Porter and son who have been visiting in Salem returned Monday.

John H. Porter and James Gordon visited the Capital City Wednesday.

A. R. Eastman was a passenger on Wednesday morning's south bound train.

If you want good, safe fire insurance, see E. W. Ross, who has been appointed local agent for the Concordia Fire Insurance Co.

The remains of George Remington were shipped to Dallas Monday.

It will now be in order for every patriot to write a good letter of congratulation and approval to Samuel Richardson, attorney-at-law, Salem, Oregon, for his good services in helping us in our recent struggle with the Roman Hierarchy, knocking their indictment out of court and thus "nipping it in the bud." Write to him!

The Loyal Berean Class of the Christian Bible School has made arrangements with Earl E. Fleischman to give another of his recitals in the Christian Church Friday evening, April 16th, with an entire change of program. From the one he gave here last winter, it promises to be a fine entertainment. All who heard him before are more than anxious to hear him again. Don't forget the date, April 16th.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a social afternoon next Tuesday at 2.30 P. M. at the home of Mrs. M. E. Rogers on Coolidge Street. A fine program is in preparation, part of which is as follows:

Ladies' Quartet,
Violin Solo,
Vocal Solo,
Instrumental Music,
Readings and Recitations.

Everyone is invited to come and enjoy the afternoon. A dainty 10c luncheon will be served.

The proper correction of defective eyesight is possible only through the services of a skilled specialist to scientifically examine your eyes and an optician to adjust your mountings. Any service not combining these two essentials, is incomplete and will cause you impaired eyesight.

Drs. Lowe and Turner possess the qualifications, and in addition have had years of hard practical experience, and know their business thoroughly in all its branches. Consult them at Hotel Parlors and every thirty days in future.

Hotel Anderson, Thursday, April 15th; Mt. Angel Hotel, April 14th.

C. F. DeGuire and son Alvis who have been in California, are at home again. They visited the many Silvertonites who settled at Fullerton, enjoyed the San Diego Fair, crossed over into Mexico, and viewed the monster preparations at San Francisco. A good time? Yes.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Ratliff of the Capital City have concluded to cast their lot for a time with The Silverton Journal workers. These good people, who are also active against the evils of the Roman idea, came over and viewed the situation last week, and, after returning to straighten up their Salem home are here again ready for business. This gives the editor the coveted opportunity to get out into the lecture field and will add much force to our work, for many hands make light work. Forward!

There will be a Shadow Social at Hazel Dell School tomorrow evening (Saturday), April 10th. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the school. Everybody invited.

Look at the SILVERTON AUTO COMPANY'S new ad. and know that we are much pleased to welcome Mr. Nofsker into to business circle of our city and into the advertising columns of our paper.

H. E. Brown, the real estate man, made a business trip to Goldendale, Washington, recently, and while there called on Jay Myers, a former printer in this office. He reports Jim as having a fine position and doing well.

W. H. Ellingsworth returned from Camas, Washington Tuesday. He was accompanied by his father, Mr. Frank Welch who returned to his home the next day.

Now that the editor of this paper is at last a free man again, we take this way of thanking all the friends who stood by us in the long-drawn out fight. There are many who will never know of the many sacrifices which have been made and how near death itself some of us have come by combatting the "beast" but we know and we appreciate to the full extent of our nature the help we received and especially while we were in prison where we would certainly have died if it had not been for the aid received from our brave and faithful friends.

SCHOOL NOTES

Prof. Butler, head of the mining department of O. A. C., gave a vocational lecture on mining engineering to the entire high school. He also addressed the chemistry class on artificial gems, so we expect the students will soon be manufacturing diamonds and rubies.

The Philadonians' Literary Society gave an excellent program Friday afternoon. Debators, affirmative: Nellie Porter and Agnes Larsen; negative: Emma Dickman and Oscar Johnson. Question: Widowed Mothers Should Be Pensioned Out of State Fund.

Dr. Conklin's lecture on "Illusions of Daily Life" was enjoyed by at least one hundred and fifty eager listeners. The next lecture will be given by Dr. Gilbert.

Remember Visiting Day May 14th. All parents are expected to visit school on that day.

The boys are preparing for a long distance run to be held April 23d.

The first base ball game played between the eighth grade and the tenth grade was won by the eighth grade. Score 15 to 1.

Now, the excitement of the trials are all over, this is just the time when the Silverton Journal most needs your help. The Roman Hierarchy set out to put this free press out of business and they have come mighty near doing it, but if the patriots who have already enlisted will just stay with us we will not only survive but will become a medium of real salvation to this great state and perhaps help in the great world movement that will never stop short of "peace on earth and good will to all men".

Sheriff Esch was over from Salem on business Thursday.

Miss Etta Lang went to Salem yesterday to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Lois Burch.

Mrs. G. H. Dedrick came from Portland last Saturday for an indefinite stay with relatives in Silverton.

$12,000 buys a twenty-four acre tract adjoining Silverton, all in cultivation. Good buildings, stock and farming implements can be subdivided. Would take $6,000 in exchange on other good property. This property should not remain in the market long as it is guilt edge goods. Come quick!

CASCADE REAL ESTATE CO. Albert Webb went to Willamina Tuesday in the auto-truck, with house hold goods of Mr. Dilley who is moving on a ranch in that vicinity.

Miss Etta Lang is spending a few days at the Hosmer home.

Wanted:—A good farmer and Stock man wants to rent a farm with stock and improvements furnished. Good references. Box 296, Silverton, Ore. If

Now the litigation is all off we are anxious to deliver a lecture in every town as fast as we can get there. This will give us a chance to do good work for our cause of LIBERTY and also to raise the absolutely necessary funds with which to carry on our publicity work. Get out among the patriots and raise twenty-five dollars or more and our expenses and then write to us at once stating just what you have done. Do this at once if possible but under no consideration faint away. Stay on the firing line and we will win the greatest victory ever recorded in human history.

Jesse Barkhurst closed out his delivery business at public sale Thursday. Mr. Barkhurst has also severed his connection with the Barkhurst and Brown Real Estate business and plans on living on a farm near the Abiqua.

A letter has been received from Portland stating that Mrs. Gertrude Rauch was to be married Wednesday to Mr. Robert Chamberlain of that city. An account of the marriage will be given later. The Silverton Journal with Mrs. Rauch's many other friends here joins in most hearty congratulations.

The Will Neal family were in Salem Wednesday.

Mrs. Dilley and the children left for Willamina Tuesday where they will make their future home.

A large delegation of old soldiers and W. R. C's from Silverton attended the Veteran's Association at Woodburn Thursday where a fine program was prepared and the best of times enjoyed. Congressman Hawley was scheduled to speak and his address was one of the main pleasures looked forward to.

Miss Elizabeth Bigler and Nellie Kinzer spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Scotts Mills.

A Picture of the War

By A. Lutterman, Ackley, Ia.

According to scripture, the first war took place in heaven among the angels — one faction fought the other until finally Satan was overpowered and dumped into this world. Since then war has been among nations.

At one time, Satan took Christ up on a high mountain, and showed him all the riches of the world, saying, "All this is yours if you bow and worship me." But Jesus said: "Get behind me, Satan," and while he spoke, Satan disappeared.

This personality is still going around now-a-days and I believe he took the Kaiser on a Zeppelin trip around the neighborhood of his country and said: "All this can you have, if you want it. Think of your big guns, your submarines, your army and navy, your great generals and men. If you command them, they obey and stick like glue, why should you hesitate?"

"Do you think, I shall win out if I try?" asked the Kaiser.

O, sure, William, and fear not, for I will be with you, but let no one know that you are in my company. Tell your people that God is your guide in all your undertaking and they will spill their last drop of blood for you.

"Shake, old fellow," offered the Kaiser, extending his hand. "It is a go."

Satan, not slow in his maneuvering, called next morning on Nicholas, the Czar of Russia, telling him of the unfairness of Austria dealing with Serbia. After that little country did all she could to prevent war, still Austria is not satisfied. If I were you, I would not let her go down, he avowed, will you?

The Czar arose to his feet, doubled up his fist and said: "By the grace of God I will defend her to the utmost."

Satan smiled and disappeared. Straightway he called on King George warning him of the danger of being overpowered by Germany in case of war.

You'd better ask William if he will respect Belgium's neutrality, before it is too late and he advances his troops, for I know he is heading this way and you know the first blows count."

The king turned red in the face, seized a pen and wrote a note to Germany requesting him to respect Belgium's neutrality or war was declared.

This suited Satan very well. He coiled up his spike-tail under his coat and bid the king good-by.

After the war was in full sway, and Germany smashing things right and left, blockading the North Sea, Satan crossed the waters and landed in Washington, D. C., for a visit to the President in the White House. He called the President's attention to all the abuse from the European powers at war, sinking his vessels and cutting off trade with neutral countries: "Why don't you stop all this at once!" urged Satan.

Wilson gazed at the old imp for some time, then with a firm look replied: "Get behind me, Satan, I am appointed by my people to protect their lives and property and not to destroy it." While yet he spoke, Satan vanished.

His next move was to see Teddy Roosevelt. "Well, said the sly old fox, I suppose you are aware of the fact that the old School-master at the White House let this country go to the dogs. I know if you had his place this country would be respected by all nations. But now we have to hide our faces in shame. Why don't you get up a company of men and drill them for the defense of this nation and in case of war you would be the Napoleon riding the white horse."

Teddy looked up with a grin, explaining that he and his four boys have already organized an army of young men called the American Legion. And it is all platted out, he added, that I am to be elected by a great majority in 1916 as the head of this nation. Satan tipped his hat, "You are right, Teddy, Good-by."

THE POPE'S BULL AGAINST THE COMET

part of a pope; it is easier to dispute the records of History, than to make the papal bulls, the papal teachings, and the statements of the annals of the times, appear consistent with matters now perfectly well known, it is easier, because not one in ten thousand of the people of the country has the data for the detection of the trick. Certainly only men who think themselves immune from detection would ordinarily stoop to such practice.

But, observe, the annals, the men responsible for the first issue of these damaging stories, were all of them good Romanists. Think it over. "J."

NOTICE

Not having had sufficient time to devote to the contest now going on between Materialists and Christians in this paper, we have allowed it too much space and also to become too personal; and this is to notify the contestants to confine their articles to about one column and to leave out all personalities. The size of our paper and the best interests of our good work demands that we enforce this rule rigidly after this issue. Editor

Dear Sir:— I am enclosing a check for One Dollar for which give me credit on subscription for your paper. It takes nearly all I can get hold of to buy flour or I could send you more. May be if I would do something right bad and be put in the County jail for about 100 days I would there learn how to die-it (diet). I might then be able to save something, a scrap from my table and use it to scrap the Micks with. Well they are trying you pretty hard; they are trying the "Menace" too, and I think it is our duty to help what we can; so you may hear from me again.
Respectfully, * * * * *
