The election of the straight Republican ticket will harmonize the party and benefit the county.

The prospects for the Democrats to elect their candidate for County Clerk looks rather Haysy,—with a capital "H."

We present on this page a fac simile of the Republican ticket to be voted in this county. Beware of spurious tickets. They will be in the field under the guise of independent tickets.

The Watchtower had no editorial matter this week but that old stereotyped chestnut, the "Weather Report" and Mr. Conder's letter of recommendation. They say nothing for any of the Republican candidates.

Mr. Conder's letter of recommendation, as published in the Voice, does not signify anything. As far as recommendations are concerned Mr. Hays can secure all he wants from men in high authority right here in his own state, and among the voters of this county.

Look out for the charges that will be trumped up at the last and sprung when too late to answer. We have refuted all charges up to date and defy our opponents to come out openly with what they say in time. We suppose the Voice will follow the example of the Watchtower and withhold a part of its issue.

With this issue we end Volume No. II, of the HEADLIGHT. For two years this paper has stayed with the people, and those who wish to stay with the HEADLIGHT for the next year will please say "I" and come up with the necessary dollar-and-a-half. This last proposition applies only to those whose subscription dates with the first issue of the paper.

Mr. Conder, by an expenditure of a two-cent stamp for return postage, might have had his much signed letter signed by 'his fatness' Grover himself. Proctor Knott, ever since he made the accidental hit of his life, (with the help of his private secretary,) by his serio-comic speech on Duluth, has been willing and anxious to sign anything and everything but the pledge.

An important change has been made in the homestead and pre-emption laws by the senate committee on public lands. The claimant cannot commute unless he has occupied the land thirty months instead of six, as provided for under the present laws. This will prevent a large amount of land from being taken and commuted in six months for speculative purposes.—Oregonian.

- FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE,

FOR CONSTABLE,

The Pierce County Herald, of Ellsworth, Wisconsin, has the following to say of our candidate for Treasurer: We hear our old friend W. C. King, formerly of Beldenville, now residing in Tillamook, Oregon, is the Republican nominee for County Treasurer of his county. If a genial good fellow, with honesty and ability is the kind of an official the Tillamooker's want, then they have found the right man.

HE KNOWS TOO MUCH!

Very frequently we hear the expression among Democrats that "Bob Hays is too smart" or "knows too much," and that is the only fault (?) to be found! Such argument ought to elect him County Clerk. For the same reason he should be kept in that office as long as he can be retained, and when he refuses to serve in that capacity any longer, he should be placed in a higher office. Bring forth some better argument against him if you expect to beat him.

POLITICAL BLACK-MAIL.

Certain candidates on both political tickets have been threatened with defeat, in case they do not comply with the wishes of certain bosses. One of the Democratic candidates has been threatened with bolting unless he supports McDermott for Treasurer, and one of the Republican candidates is to be spotted unless he votes against R. R. Hays. The men who make such threats are not only devoid of political principle, but they act on the supposition that everybody else has the same lack of honor. It has come to a pretty pass when a candidate cannot exercise his own political freedom by voting the straight ticket.

"Don't shout until you are out of the woods." Some of those who are making the greatest noise in their predictions regarding the election will be the most surprised when it is over, as they have been on occasions heretofore. There is always a great deal of talk about how this man and that man is going to vote, but it will appear quite differently when the election is over. Remember those who are least informed pretend to know the most.

OFFICE SEEKERS.

There are two kinds of office seekers. One class of men are all the time looking for a fat, easy position where they can draw a good salary and do little work. Such men find it hard to make a living at anything and if they must be supported, it is cheaper to put them to put them in the poor house.

There is another class who are not just exactly office-seekers, but who are willing to perform good work for the pay they receive, and are independent enough, that if they fail to get an office, can make a good living at anything they engage in. Good paying positions are always waiting for such men, and they will always be found industriously at work and prospering. Such a man is R. R. Hays, and he will be found succeeding in any business that he undertakes. He is not begging for support, and yet we are perfectly confident that he will be elected by a majority so large that it will be a surprise to his opposers. We believe the citizens and taxpayers will make our predictions true in a very decisive manner.
