Hon. Wm. D. Stillwell made a trip to Yamhill last week.

W. W. Conder, County Clerk elect, was in the city yesterday.

Surveyor A. P. Wilson has gone to Portland on business.

Liverpool is the name of another new town-site on the Nehalem.

Comic songs will be a feature of the literary theatrical on the 21st.

The Str. Truckee arrived at Hobsonville from San Francisco Sunday.

Jeff Wallace, of Nestucca, made this office a pleasant call Monday.

The school board met last Friday night and transacted some minor business.

Theo. Steinhilber has moved to his place on the beach below Garibaldi.

Wm. Olsen is having his wharf repaired, and new piles are being driven.

We acknowledge the receipt of some very interesting letters from Dr. Johnson.

A tomb-stone agent is canvassing the county and has been taking a good many orders.

Wm. Olsen, of this city, is putting in a branch store at Saginaw, on the Nehalem.

Lumber shipments for this week amounted to 600,000 feet; all from Hobsonville.

T. B. Handley has laid out an addition to Garibaldi, and is selling lots at a lively rate.

A Mr. Isaacs has purchased J. Ford's place on Beaver creek and will at once put up a store.

The cupola is being placed on the school house and a fence is being built around the grounds.

Take your best girl to the festival to-night. If you haven't got one, take somebody else's girl.

Those who have produce to sell should write to Allen & Lewis, of Portland. They are strictly reliable.

O. Heins, the Photographer, is now ready for business. See his advertisement in next week's issue.

Go and spend four bits to-night to help the church along, and have a feast on strawberries and ice cream.
