There is still a great deal of kicking among tax-payers on account of the enormous expense attached to the trial of Howell for killing Hauxhurst. It is claimed that if the county is fortunate enough to get the case settled at the next term of the circuit court, it will cost $1,000.

Tom Handley says that he doesn't care so much about people breaking into his cabin at Flower-pot Bay and stealing everything they can carry away, but when it comes to tearing down the walls for firewood he kicks. It gives the other bummers no show, and he must draw the line somewhere.

M. H. Larson has a hen that is a very profitable bird. She is a good layer, and her eggs are always double size. We have three of them on exhibition in this office, the smallest of which measures seven inches in circumference one way and nine inches the other. This is a prolific climate.

The price of the HEADLIGHT and Detroit Free Press clubbed together after this will be $2.00. Please note change in our clubbing list. We can not even make these terms with old subscribers of the Free Press, and all who have taken advantage of our clubbing list heretofore cannot renew with the same paper, as the terms given us by other publications are applicable only to new subscribers to those papers.

There is a great deal of complaint made by our subscribers in the southern part of the county on account of not getting their papers regularly. We hope the postmasters in that section will look into the matter and will take it as a favor if our patrons will inform us of any failure to receive their papers. We are careful to see that the papers leave this office O.K., and cannot understand wherein the difficulty lies.

A small fire started in the roof of the building formerly occupied by Harry Wright as a barber shop, Wednesday morning, a defective flue being the cause. Prompt action of the Hook and Ladder Co. saved the building. The Hook and Ladder Co. may yet be the means of stopping many conflagrations before they are disastrous. Those who have had property saved should drop a dollar or two in the slot.

The Oregonian should be in every household. Send for premium list to the Oregonian Publishing Co., Portland, Oregon.

have been obliged to return the money for many orders. It was impossible for us to ascertain in advance how many papers would be required, and many persons did not think of taking so many until they saw the paper. It was better than was expected. We will as soon as possible make provision to supply the outside world with literature pertaining to the county, and then every one can send full and accurate descriptive matter to their distant friends.

I. T. Wood, of Cosmopolis, Wash., is visiting his father Rev. J. H. Wood of this place. Mr. Wood is city marshall of Cosmopolis, and is a prominent citizen of that place. He is well informed in regard to the lumbering interests and is well pleased with what he has seen of this country. He is looking over the country in the interest of Gray's Harbor capitalists, and says there are a great many men of means looking towards Tillamook as a good place for invesments, and predicts a great boom for this place next summer. Timber in the Gray's Harbor region is now selling by stumpage, and a quarter-section of land at the prices paid, net the owners $2,000 to $4,000, and there is no reason why the timber lands of this county will not be worth as much in a very short time.

Bowers and Roland's dance Saturday night was a very pleasant affair. The music was excellent, in fact the Bowers-Roland musical combination is the best thing of the kind Tillamook ever had. Mr. Roland plays the cornet and has the reputation of being one of the best players in the state. He is an excellent band leader, and is now engaged in giving instructions to the Tillamook Cornet Band, and is fast bringing it up to a high degree of proficiency. Mr. D. C. Bowers is the violinist and leads the string band. He is by all odds the best violinist in the country, and his services are always secured for dances when possible. D. C. Pierce plays second violin, and handles the bow in a skillfull manner. Mrs. Bowers, who is an excellent musician, plays the organ. A piano will pe placed in the hall. The combination will give a ball every week, and will give a grand masquerade ball on Feb. 14, further particulars of which will be given later.

G.A.R. CAMP FIRE.

The camp fire on Wednesday night was a grand success, and the G.A.R. hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. The pork and bean supper was enjoyed by all. The music by the band and choir was excellent. The recitations were good. The comrades told many interesting stories of their experiences in the late war. After the other exercises were over, most of the audience engaged in a dance. Much credit is due W. O. Thayer for the success of the affair.

The occasion will be long remembered by the old army veterans, and everyone who was present will hold pleasant memories of the event.

WHAT THEY SAY.

The following are a few of the many complimentary notices given the New-Year HEADLIGHT by our exchanges:

VERY CREDITABLE.

The TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT issued a very creditable illustrated New Year's edition.—Statesman.

WELL ILLUSTRATED.

The TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT of the 9th comes out well illustrated, with the business houses and prominent men of that place.—Yaquina Republican.

THE BEST IN OREGON.

The TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT put out the best New Year edition of any paper in Oregon, measured by the resources of its field of enterprise.—Yamhill Reporter.

FAMILIAR FACES.

The TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT issued a very neat illustrated edition Jan. 9. Among the familiar faces is noticed that of E. E. Selph, and of the buildings there is the bank of C. & E. Thayer, and the merchandise store of G. W. Fearnside.—Portland World.

AN EXCELLENT PAPER.

The TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT'S New-Year's edition is an excellent paper. It gives a good description of Tillamook county and city. It is a well gotten up paper, and shows that the proprietors, Messrs. Lamb & Jones are first-class newspaper men.—Layfayette Ledger.

BUILT UP THE TOWN.

The illustrated number of the TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT, issued last week, was very creditable to the proprietors, Lamb & Jones. It contained a number of finely executed cuts of buildings and prominent people. A few years ago Tillamook was looked upon as a place, almost, if not quite out of the world but the establishment of the HEADLIGHT has brought about wonderful changes.—Telephone-Register

FINE ILLUSTRATIONS.

The issue of the HEADLIGHT, printed at Tillamook, of the 9th inst., was a creditable paper, giving a very good description of Tillamook city and county, with fine illustrations of public and private buildings, the proposed $40,000 hotel at Nehalem beach, pictures of the prominent men of that section, etc. The HEADLIGHT is the boss in the line of timber land notices, having published 820 of them within two years, besides 330 homestead and pre-emption notices, the printer's fees amounting to nearly ten thousand dollars.—Toledo Post.

HOLMES BUSINESS COLLEGE. of Portland, Oregon, will open September 1st J. A. Wesco, the leading penman of the coast has become a partner in this school and will make it the leading Business College. Send for Catalogue. 14-28

Tillamook have been introduced by our representative, Hon. Wm. D. Stillwell:

A bill to incorporate the town of Tillamook.

A bill to appropriate $5,000 for bridging the Nestucca and the Nehalem rivers.

These measures are of great importance and should be passed. Of course there is no doubt but the incorporation bill will pass, and justice demands that the bridge appropriation bill should become a law, as Tillamook county has been a source of great revenue to the state. Five per cent. of all the money received from the sale of public lands by the government for lands in Tillamook county, goes to the state for internal improvements. Five per cent. of this sum would be $20,000. This alone would remunerate the state for the Maxwell road appropriation, pay for the proposed $5,000 bridge appropriation, and leave a balance of $5,000 in favor of the county. The money received by the state from the sale of public lands has usually been turned into the school fund, and as the burden of taxation for school purposes has been lightened in that way, it would be no more than fair to tax the state for other purposes in return.

Tillamook county has enrichened the state school fund, and has not received her just share in return. Now, let us have it in another form. The people here are able to support the schools and are doing it, but the bridges are badly needed, and a tax on the county for that purpose would be rather burdensome.

Tillamook county has a great wealth of timber lands, and probably no similar area of country ever was the source of so much revenue to the government in so short a time, and though the state's share is only a small per cent., yet the total amounts to a surprising figure. The country is yet in its infancy and the industries that are usually found in a lumbering country are hardly begun, and as a result, the population is yet small and only a limited number of men can find employment here, so the desired help in the way of appropriations should not be slow in coming.

The state can surely afford us a few thousand dollars in return for what she has received, and the United States ought to give us a few hundred-thousand dollars, in the way of harbor improvements, for what this county has brought into the national treasury.

The state and national government have received their money, and now let some of it be expended to make the property that it sold of some value. This will not only benefit the land-holders, and masses but will promote commercial interests in this state and on this coast.

TO PUBLISH THE LAWS.

Proposed Bill to Publish the Laws of Oregon in the Newspapers.

The following is a copy of a bill that will be introduced at this session of the Oregon Legislature.

SECTION 1. Within ninety days after adjournment of the Legislative Assembly all general laws enacted by such Legislative Assembly shall be published at the expense of the state, in the general newspapers of the state, and all special laws enacted by such Legislative Assembly shall be published in at least one newspaper, to be designated by the Secretary of State unless otherwise provided, in the locality affected by such law; such publication to be at the expense of the state unless otherwise provided for.

SECTION 2. The publisher of any newspaper may file with the Secretary of State within ten days after the adjournment of the Legislative assembly, an affidavit, upon a blank form to be furnished by the Secretary, stating that he is the publisher of a general newspaper within the state, having at leas 300 bona fide subscribers within the state, and that such publication has been published within the state consecutively not less often than once a week for one year prior to the date of his affidavit, with a correct statement of all facts regarding circulation, days of issue, name of publication, and such other information as the Secretary of State may require, together with a copy of such publication; and an application to be designated as official publisher of the laws enacted by such Legislative Assembly; and undertaking to perform such publication as here in provided.

SECTION 3. Any publisher upon complying with the foregoing section, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to designate such applicant as publisher and to furnish such publisher with a correctly printed copy of the Laws enacted by the Legislative Assembly as defined in section 1 of this act, to be published as provided in section 5 of this act.

SECTION 4. The publisher shall receive compensation for such publication at the rate of twenty cents per folio of one hundred words: Provided, that publication in newspapers having over one thousand circulation in the state shall be paid for at the rate of five cents per folio additional for each one thousand additional circulational within the state, or fraction over five hundred.

SECTION 5. Such publication when ordered, shall be made one time in each newspaper so designated, and within ninety days after the adjournment of the Legislative Assembly, and a correctly and legibly printed copy of such newspaper shall be filed with the Secretary of State with bill for printing the same attached, and if found so printed the Secretary of State shall approve the bill and issue a warrant on the State Treasurer for the payment thereof.

SECTION 6. This act shall be construed to mean that such publication shall not be made at the expense of the state if printed in supplement or pamphlet form, apart and separate from the newspaper.

SECTION 7. This act being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

The mail is now carried over the Wallace trail, it being the best route this time of year.

G. W. Wallace is improving his ranch. Cattle on the range are looking well.

BETHESDA.

FROM WOODS

ED. HEADLIGHT—I write to express the admiration of many or all of the patrons of your valuable paper, in regard to your illustrated edition, which reached us shortly after New Year. In the words of the Governor, "it is a daisy," and presume many copies have went whirling all over the world, to the great credit of Tillamook.

Woods is still booming.

The Lyceum jury was hung on the Chinese question.

Frank Norberg, the most popular man of Woods, is on his way back to his business. Frank is a genuine good fellow admired by all who know him. He is the owner of one of Nestucca's best farms, and we judge from the smiles we saw a fair lady cast at him, he owns one of Nestucca's best hearts. He is at present in the employ of the government, and gets a handsome salary, and no one knows better how to dispose of it to the edification of all better than Frank.

BAY CITY.

The Institute is planning for an evening among the authors. Literary quotations, essays, music and select reading will be the order of the programe.

Charley Fuller is still quite sick, with a bad ear. Dr. Madison is in attendance

Mr. Frank Oaks has become the new engineer at Comers's mill.

A building is being fitted up on the corner opposite Hald & Co's. store. We suppose this is to materalize into the much talked of saloon.

The Oregonian has devoted considerable space to descriptive advertisement of our city.

Bertie and Lulu King spent Sunday with their parents in Tillamook.

W. S. Cone has returned from his trip to Portland elated with new ideas and prospects for our city's future. He says that we have not long to wait to see positive and permanent improvements.

Miss Baird reports that she has a very pleasant little school at Hobsonville.

Mr. Tracy Elliott is appreciated as a chorister.

Mr. Dunsmoore from Minnesota will go into business with his brother J. K. Dunsmoore, in the the proposed furniture, sash and door factory, The building will be erected nearly opposite the printing office.

The M. E. quarterly conference was held at the school-house to-day. Messrs Rev. Wood, Wilson, and Goyne were present from Tillamook.

SCHOOL MEETING.

The meeting was called to order by J. C. Bewley. On motion Mr. McCoy was chosen chairman. The object of the meeting was to complete a district organization. On motion Prof. E. K. Barnard was chosen secretary pro-tem. Messrs. Cone; Morton, Curtis. Jacoby and Comer were nominated for directors. A ballot being taken Messers. Comer, Morton and Curtis were declared duly elected. Ballot being taken Mr. Hare was elected clerk

On motion meeting adjourned in due form.

NOTICE TO PAY.

I am going out of the hotel business Feb. 1, 1891, and all who owe me will please call and settle before that date.

J. A. RICHARDSON.

HEADLIGHT AND JUDGE'S LIBRARY.

Everybody who will send us $2.00 for a year's subscription to the HEADLIGHT will receive in addition to our paper, the famous humorous monthly magazine called "Judge's Library," for one year. This offer is made to both those renewing old subscriptions and to those becoming subscribers for the first time. No other paper in this country is able to make subscribers this offer, the HEADLIGHT having secured the exclusive right to club with "Judge's Library" for this vicinity. "Judge's Library" is a monthly magazine of fun, the subscription price of which alone is $1.00. It contains 32 pages of humorous illustrations and reading matter, to all of which "Judge's" famous artists and writers are contributors, and is neatly printed and bound in handsome colored covers. It is a condensation, in fact, of "Judge's" brightest humor.
