DIED.

QUICK.—At his late residence in this city, on the morning of Saturday, Feb. 7 1891, Charles F. Quick, aged 32 years.

Deceased was a native of Oregon being born in Tillamook county April 27, 1859. He was highly respected in the community, and a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives followed the remains to the I. O. O. F. cemetery where the funeral service was preached by Rev. H. B. Morgan. The sorrowing widow and family have the sympathy of the whole community in their great bereavment.

HOLMES BUSINESS COLLEGE of Portland, Oregon, will open September 1[illegible]

[illegible] creek, while hunting his cattle in the mountains, had quite an exciting adventure with an old bear and her two cubs. He suceeded, with the assistance of his dog and a little strategy, in killing the old bear and capturing the cubs. It was a close shave but Mr. Wells thinks he was well paid.

This office has secured, from A. McNair, a copy of the New York Herald of April 15, 1865. It has its column rules turned in mourning and gives an account of the assassination of President Lincoln the evening before, and of the attempt on Secretary Seward's life. The capture of Richmond by the Union army, and the retreat of Lee's army is also treated of fully.

The Oregonian has the largest circulation of and Daily, Sunday or Weekly paper west of the Rocky Mountains. And in order to further increase its circulation they have selected with great care, a large list of valuable books and other useful articles, and are offering them as premiums to each new subscriber, to any of its several issues for yearly subscriptions. The Oregonian should be in every household. Send for premium list to the Oregonian Publishing Co., Portland, Oregon.

No publication comes to our table that is more highly prized than the Scientific American. Aside from keeping the public fully posted respecting new inventions and scientific developments, it contains a vast amount of practical and useful. The engravings are of a remarkably high order and matter accompanying them is so tersely put that such subjects as might, under ordinary circumstances, be considered dry and heavy, are not only readable, but highly enjoyable. It is the best conducted scientific journal in the United States, as well as being typographically the handsomest. Its circulation is larger than all the others of its class combined. Subscription price, $3 per annum. Munn & Co., 361 Broadway, New York.

PROUD OF HIS COUNTY.

Captain Stillwell, of Tillamook, has the patriarchal form in the house. The captain says he is proud to represent such a county as Tillamook, rich in timber, mineral and agricultural resources. By the inflation in land values in his county Captain Stillwell has risen from comparatively a poor man to that of a rich one, and his acquisition of some of the power that helps move the wheels of the world has not changed his quiet, pleasant and unassuming manner. His actions have been such as to cause the members to repose confidence and trust in him, and his judgement is valued on many of the more important questions of the session.—Oregonian.

THE TURN OF THE TIDE.

The above is the title of the drama to be given by local talent, at the Grand Central hall, Feb. 16, for the benefit of the school organ fund. The following dramatic celebrities will constitute the cast of characters:

ORETOWN.

Pugilistic encounters have been rather frequeht of late. A few days since Frank and Marian had a little dispute and, as both grew fighting mad, concluded the best way to settle the matter was after the style of the London Prize Ring. "Milo" acted as referee, "Johnie" as bottle-holder and "Harry" as time-keeper.

1st. Round: A short one. Frank no sooner reached the center of the ring than a heavy tap on the nose laid him on his back.

2nd. Round: On time being called, Frank came up smiling but more cautious. He led with his right but, failing to land, Marian delivered an upper cut which once more put Frank on his back.

3rd. Round: Time being called, Frank looked groggy and, being evidently weak, was completly knocked out. Therefore, Frank has come to this conclusion "there is nothing in fighting any-way."

Fred and Jack seem to be ramblers. They have left us again.

HEADLIGHT AND JUDGE'S LIBRARY.

Everybody who will send us $2.00 for a year's subscription to the HEADLIGHT will receive in addition to our paper, the famous humorous monthly magazine called "Judge's Library," for one year. This offer is made to both those renewing old subscriptions and to those becoming subscribers for the first time. No other paper in this country is able to make subscribers this offer, the HEADLIGHT having secured the exclusive right to club with "Judge's Library" for this vicinity. "Judge's Library" is a monthly magazine of fun, the subscription price of which alone is $1.00. It contains 32 pages of humorous illustrations and reading matter, to all of which "Judge's" famous artists and writers are contributors, and is neatly printed and bound in handsome colored covers. It is a condensation, in fact, of "Judge's" brightest humor.
