BARNEGAT MAIL.

The mail Packet, "Nellie J" leaves Tillamook every Monday at high tide.

A BLIND PAINTER.—Harper's Bazaar.

Or Else.—?

"Papa, don't you think these glasses make me appear intellectual?"

After Number One.

She—Whom do you care most for, Jack?

He—Is it possible you do not know whom I love best in this world?

She—Yes, I know, but next to him?—Life.

An Expressed Desire.

Little Girl (to waiting coachman)—Would you mind pulling me and my brother around the block? I would like to feel how it is to be driven by a real coachman!—Life.

Somewhat Different.

11 p. m.—Ah, this is comfort at last.

12 p. m.—But this is different.—Chicago Mail.

No Change.

"No, Harry, I am sorry, but I am sure that we could not be happy together. You know I always want my own way in everything."

"But, my dear girl, you could go on wanting it—after we were married!—Life.

All persons desiring photographs taken will do well to have them taken at once, as on October 15th, I shall close my gallery and it will remain closed during the coming winter or until further notice.
