FEMININE FANCIES.

Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins is Senator Gorman's cousin.

Mrs. Mackay is the fortunate possessor of a string of flawless diamonds two yards in length.

Mrs. Hob Ingersoll is a tall brunette, with hair of ebony blackness, fine features and a pretty mouth.

Lady Tennison preserves with religious care every pipe her husband smokes and every oaken stick he carries.

The wife of Lieutenant H. D. Borup, of the United States legation in Paris, is one of the very few ladies who can claim to have made the ascent of Mont Blanc.

Nellie Arthur, daughter of the ex-president, has a well rounded figure, sparkling brown eyes, dark, sleek hair rolled back from a low brow, a sweet smile and a pretty, girlish manner.

One of the richest young women in Philadelphia is Miss Katellie Pardee, who is engaged to be married to a minister. She is one of the four daughters of Mr. Calvin C. Pardee, a coal dealer, who is worth about $14,000,000.

Kithel Chase Sprague is a daring equestrian, and visits the stable of her horse frequently to direct how he shall be cared for. She learned to ride on a Shetland pony when only five years old, and has ever since been familiar with horses.

In 1884, while suffering from brain fever, Miss Asenath Phillips, of Gainesville, Tex., had her head shaved. On her recovery a new and generous growth of hair commenced, and now she is the proud owner of tresses which are ten feet seven inches long.

Miss Aparicio, a pretty Cuban girl and the sister of Mme. de Barrios, was one of the belles of Richfield Springs the past summer. She is a daring rider, a good musician, and her beauty is of the regular Spanish type of attractiveness. She is, in fact, a very attractive of loveliness.

Mrs. Logan still dresses in the most becoming black. The only time she has omitted it was at a White House dinner, when she appeared in lavender fallis, a very becoming costume. She still wears her mourning veil and widow's cap, and at her throat is a big, old fashioned brooch containing a picture of General Logan.

THE JEWEL CASKET.

Tiny silver mounted hourglasses are pretty novelties.

Bristles set in silver standards are intended as penholders.

Champagne bottles, gold seal, in silver are used as perfume bottles.

Rings of repouse silver in which a diamond is sunk are intended for men.

Graduated fleur-de-lis of white enamel make the pendants of a pretty necklace.

A charming necklace is of graded pieces of pale pink coral set between diamonds.

Topaz rings are considered especially becoming to the hand. But to be elegant, topaz requires the accompaniment of fine diamonds.

Queen chains made of 2-inch links of fine gold connected by coral, pearls or onyx seem to imitate the long chains that are now worn in Paris.

Fob chains and chateaux imitate the woven wire souvenir chains that come from Venice. These consist of squares of platinum and gold alternating.

A bracelet of blue enamel has the shape of a plain band bordered by a straight row of tiny diamonds. The fastening is a button in a gold bound buttonhole.

Seals in onyx, gray, wine colored or in the rich tints of some of the varieties, are set in faceted different types placed back to back. Another style is an Arab head with hood hanging back.

A spider-legged silver crab over three inches broad and over an inch high, with simple rows of diamonds on its outer curves, is designed as a brooch for some one of eccentric and independent tastes.

A heart surmounted by a crown is a popular setting for a ring. The heart is always a colored stone, ruby, emerald or sapphire, surrounded by small diamonds defining the required shape. The crown has diamond points.—Jewelers' Circular.

POWDER AND BALL.

Gunpowder was first made by a monk at Cologne in 1380.

Good results of the persistent training of German cavalry horses in swimming have begun to appear.

The largest gun ever made by Krupp is the property of the Russian government. It is made of cast steel and has a barrel 40 feet long, with a bore of 12½ inches. It costs $1,500 to fire a single shot from the gun.

The Belgian military authorities have discovered that various songs used in the army are not quite proper, and several poets and composers have been applied to to supply the army with some unobjectionable songs in French and Flemish to take their place.

The 12-inch breech loading, steel hooped, steel lined, cast iron mortar was officially tested at Sandy Hook. It was a big success. A steel shell weighing 2,334 pounds was sent whizzing through a solid steel armor plate four inches thick, completely demolishing it.

Our army, small as it is, eats 25,000 pounds of meat a day, an equal amount of vegetables and 30,000 pounds of flour. The days of hard tack and salt pork have long since passed away, and an ordinary mess table is spread with very appetizing dishes nowadays.

The Chinese do not permit their women to be photographed.

The latest fad is to have yourself and all of your family photographed on your cups and saucers.

The young sons of Senor Don Miguel Suarez Guana, Spanish minister to the United States, have cameras, of which they make free use.

The photographers of the country want a separate building at the exposition adapted to a magnificent photographic exhibit collected from the whole world.

Dry plate photography is about ten years old, and most of the processes in this delightful art science have therefore been accomplished within the past decade.

The amateur photographer is shown things by the camera which he never dreamed of before, and is led by it into the secret haunts of nature of whose existence even he was previously ignorant.

A complete photographic outfit can be purchased from any reliable dealer for from $10 to $100, and the necessary instruction can be obtained in one lesson when the purchaser obtains his equipment. It is then merely a question of practice and

Has Electric Lights, Good Graveled Streets and an Excellent System of Side-walks. It is Backed by Magnificent Tracks of Fir and Spruce.

Life in Pizen Creek.

Colonel Whipsaw (at Bad Lands House, glaring about)—Hey, waiter! Waiter—What is it, sah? Ain't dare ruff water in de finger bowl, sah? Colonel Whipsaw—No, 'tain't that, you black raskil. Can't you see the horse hain't got no toothpick!—Texas Sittings.

A Paying Institution.

Clara—Here's a slot machine and I haven't a nickel. I wonder if a dime would do? Her Brother—No. You weighed on one of those machines not half an hour ago.

Clara—But this is another machine.—Good News.

Got Discouraged.

Rural Host—That's a real purty picture. Painted it yerself, didn't ye? Artist—Yes.

Host—Been paintin pictures all y'r life? Artist—Well, n-o. The fact is, that when a young man I first handled a brush as a sign painter.

Host—Well, it's too bad you got discouraged so soon. Judgin by that picture, you'd made a first class sign painter if y'd only kep' at it.—Good News.

A Story in Two Acts.

WADB

AND FOUND WANTING.

—Life.

The Depth of Love.

Ho—Did you read that article on ice cream? Five hundred persons, I believe, died from eating it last year.

She—So I read, George. But I'd willingly face death at your side, dear—

The above is a sample ballot. Fold it so the stubs at the top can be torn off without exposing the contents of the ticket. One stub will be torn off without exposing the contents of the ticket. One stub will be torn off before the ticket is handed to you. Go into the booth and use the pencil left there for the purpose of marking the ticket. Your vote must be kept secret, under heavy penalties. Don't let any one see it unless you can't read, when the judges will help you. Mark out the names of men you do not want, just the same as the outsize voting. When you vote, leave the polls. Don't electioneer within fifty feet of the polls. The colored ballots are for samples and I cannot be voted. Don't mark your ticket so any one may recognize your vote. The blank lines are left so that you can vote for whom you please no matter if his name is not on the ticket. In such case mark out all the other names for the office indicated and write your choice.

NEHALEM CITY.

The most eligible site for a town on Nehalem has been subdivided into city lots by Henry Toeh and the Nehalem Mill Co., and lots may now be had for a very small figure that will be very valuable before a year. The Company is now erecting a large mill and box factory and wharves. Other mills are being started in the vicinity and there is an opening for many more industries and businesses. Nehalem harbor will have $10,000 expended on it at once and it already is one of the best on the coast. Nehalem River is a magnificent stream, over 100 miles long, navigable several miles, and is the best logging stream on the coast. The finest body of timber and the most extensive deposits of good accessible coal in the North West are on this stream and its tributaries. The farming lands are rich as can be found; there is good pasture land, and the fishing interests are very great. Buy now while lots are cheap. For full particulars call on or address:

HEADLIGHT PRINTING CO.
[Tack this on your desk.] TILLAMOOK, ORE.

WHAT TILLAMOOK CITY HAS.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS.—The city is lighted throughout by electricity, the streets with arc lights and the dwellings and business houses with incandescent lights. The plant is first-class in every respect, and capable of lighting a city of 10,000 inhabitants.

SIDEWALKS.—Stiles of good, wide, substantially constructed sidewalks, forming a network extending to and connecting all parts of the city.

GRAVELED STREETS.—A first-class system of graveled streets, with a deep covering of good gravel, which is obtained in the city limits.

CITY HALL.—A neat substantial structure, containing city offices, council chamber, city jail and rooms for Fire Company. There is a fire bell in the tower, and the house is provided with a good architectural appearance.

TELEGRAPH.—The Tillamook & Bay City Telegraph line connects with the Western Union at Forest Grove, and will be extended on this end to Nehalem and Clatsop.

TOWNSHIP.—The location of the city is remarkably beautiful, and is just sloping enough to secure good sewerage and drainage. An excellent system of water-works can be put in at reasonable cost, also. The townsite is laid off regularly, and with wide streets.

BUILDINGS.—There are many costly and beautiful dwelling houses in the city, and many substantial business houses. The school house is a credit to the city.

BUSINESS.—The city has four wharves, a saw mill, three blacksmith shops, two livery stables, three good hotels, several wood-working shops, two hardware stores, a jewelry store, a book store, a shoe store, three saloons, two barber shops, a temperance resort, a feed store, two drug stores, agricultural implement store, meat market, bakery and restaurant, photograph gallery, cooperage shop, millinery store, seven general merchandise stores, a bank, a furniture store, a newspaper, machinist's shop, real estate agents, lawyers, doctors, etc., etc.

FAIR GROUNDS.—The Tillamook Fair Association has fine grounds, an excellent half-mile track, grand-stand, pavilion, etc.

CHURCHES.—The Catholics, the Methodists (Christians), M. E. Church South, and other denominations are well represented here.

SOCIETIES.—The Odd Fellows, Masons, Grand Army, and other orders have lodges here.

EDUCATION.—The school employs four teachers. Private schools are often conducted. Two or three church institutions are in progress, and good inducements are held out for college and literary societies and reading circles are maintained.

MAIL FACILITIES.—There are daily mails from the S. P. R. station at North Yamhill; also to Bay City and points on the Bay, and tri-weekly mails from this place to many other points in the county.

ADVANTAGES.—Tillamook City is the county seat and commercial metropolis of Tillamook County. It holds the key to the farming region and to traffic on the Bay, and is backed by magnificent resources in the way of lumbering, drying, fishing, etc.

TRANSPORTATION.—Steamers ply between this place and Astoria and Portland; also between the bay and San Francisco. The steamers have good accommodations for passengers, and carry freight at cheap rates. There is a daily stage between this place and North Yamhill (on the S. P. R. R.) in the summer, and new stage routes will soon be opened. A railroad is sure to come in the near future.

BOARD OF TRADE.—Which will answer all questions regarding the country and assist settlers in finding suitable homes.

The date opposite your name printed on the margin of your paper or on the wrapper indicates the time your subscription expires, and you are invited to renew at that time. All payments to parties outside the county are promptly discontinued when their time expires and six months' arrearage is the limit within the county. In stopping your subscription, it is necessary first to pay all arrearages.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.
