

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

H. V. JOHNSON, M. D. Office on next door to Temperance Parlors.

E. E. SELPH, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. TILLAMOOK, OREGON.

T. MAULSBY, Attorney-at-Law. Notary Public and Real Estate Conveyancer.

W. SEVERANCE, DEPUTY-DISTRICT ATTORNEY, 3rd Judicial District, for Tillamook County TILLAMOOK, OREGON.

CLAUDE THAYER, Attorney-at-Law. TILLAMOOK, OREGON.

VAN BUREN BROMLEY, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT-LAW, MAY CITY, OREGON.

MISCELLANEOUS.

C. & E. THAYER, BANKERS. General Banking and Exchange business.

I. F. LARSON, BLACKSMITH. Wagon-making, and all kinds of Wood-work.

Mrs. J. JOHNSON, RUGGLES & JOHNSON, MILLINERY AND DRESS-MAKING.

L. H. BROWN, PROPRIETOR. The best Beef, Veal, Pork and Mutton always on hand.

TILLAMOOK LAUNDRY. LESTER HART, PROPRIETOR. Washing gathered and delivered every week.

TILLAMOOK LIVELY STABLE, JONES BROS. PROPRIETORS. First-class single and double turn-outs kept on hand.

ACRE TRACTS AND TOWN LOTS. For sale at reasonable prices and on favorable terms.

THE ST. AUGUSTA. Will make regular trips, the weather permitting.

For Treasurer, George Cohn, The Regular Democratic Nominee.

SAVE TIME. IT REQUIRES TO WRITE THE NEWS TO YOUR EASTERN FRIENDS.

Tillamook Lumbering Company,

Rough and Dressed Merchantable Lumber. Moulding of Every Description, Brackets, Etc. Flooring and Rustic a Specialty.

ALL ORDERS FILLED PROMPTLY. TILLAMOOK, OREGON.

THE best investment you can make is to insure your life, and thus provide your estate with cash at your death.

THE MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. Write the best policy, guaranteeing you cash and paid up insurance every year.

TRUCKEE LUMBER CO., (OF SAN FRANCISCO,) DEALERS IN General Merchandise.

They keep on hands at their store in Hobsonville the largest stock of goods in Tillamook County.

Our stock consists of Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps and Notions.

AGENTS FOR The Steamer TRUCKEE. TILLAMOOK, SAN FRANCISCO AND WAY PORTS.

NEHALEM CITY. THE BEST PLACE TO INVEST. Magnificent Timber Rich Coal Deposits Productive Farm Land. FINE TOWNSITE

Notice of Sale. Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a warrant issued by the Recorder of Tillamook County.

Over One Million Sold. MOST complete book of its kind SCRIBNER'S LUMBER AND LOG BOOK.

THE JAPANESE PILE CURE. A new and complete treatment consisting of Suppositories, Ointments in Capsules, also in Bux and pills.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE. The success of this Great Cough Cure is without a parallel in the history of medicine.

THE WOOLEN INDUSTRY PROPRIETORS. There has been an increase of 5,000 in the number of hands employed and the capital invested has doubled in the wool manufacturing industry from 1880 to 1890.

THE DOWNFALL AND RECOVERY OF SPENCER KEENE. James R. Keene is coming up again, and in the right way.

THEY DO NOT MARRY. WHY YOUNG PEOPLE FIND SINGLE BLESSEDNESS SO COMFORTABLE.

SPRINGER AND THE LABORER. What His Free Wool Bill Would Mean to the American Workingman.

HAS REGAINED HIS GRIP. The Downfall and Recovery of Spencer Keene.

THEY DO NOT MARRY. WHY YOUNG PEOPLE FIND SINGLE BLESSEDNESS SO COMFORTABLE.

SPRINGER AND THE LABORER. What His Free Wool Bill Would Mean to the American Workingman.

HAS REGAINED HIS GRIP. The Downfall and Recovery of Spencer Keene.

THEY DO NOT MARRY. WHY YOUNG PEOPLE FIND SINGLE BLESSEDNESS SO COMFORTABLE.

SPRINGER AND THE LABORER. What His Free Wool Bill Would Mean to the American Workingman.

HAS REGAINED HIS GRIP. The Downfall and Recovery of Spencer Keene.

THEY DO NOT MARRY. WHY YOUNG PEOPLE FIND SINGLE BLESSEDNESS SO COMFORTABLE.

SPRINGER AND THE LABORER. What His Free Wool Bill Would Mean to the American Workingman.

HAS REGAINED HIS GRIP. The Downfall and Recovery of Spencer Keene.

THEY DO NOT MARRY.

WHY YOUNG PEOPLE FIND SINGLE BLESSEDNESS SO COMFORTABLE.

If They Got Married They Would Have to Make a Great Many Sacrifices, or So They Think, and as a Result They Keep Away from the Knot of Hymen.

It is an oft repeated remark that New York is the finest place in the republic to live in—if you are rich.

This is the criticism of the person who does not contemplate life as a possibility—or an agreeable possibility—without society, in the narrow sense of the word.

Singularly enough, those who demand these things—who will not accept married life without them—are generally not well supplied with this world's goods.

So thinks the everyday, gentlemanly, good looking, entirely personable young man of thirty, who draws an income of from two to four thousand a year, and is asked out all over because he dances admirably and is good to look at.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

SPRINGER AND THE LABORER.

What His Free Wool Bill Would Mean to the American Workingman.

It does not require much effort to see the ruinous effect which the enactment of Mr. Springer's bill, abolishing the duty on wool and greatly reducing the duties on its manufactures, must have on American wool growing.

It is an oft repeated remark that New York is the finest place in the republic to live in—if you are rich.

This is the criticism of the person who does not contemplate life as a possibility—or an agreeable possibility—without society, in the narrow sense of the word.

Singularly enough, those who demand these things—who will not accept married life without them—are generally not well supplied with this world's goods.

So thinks the everyday, gentlemanly, good looking, entirely personable young man of thirty, who draws an income of from two to four thousand a year, and is asked out all over because he dances admirably and is good to look at.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

They do not want to be millionaires, but they do not want to be really pinched anywhere. Their house must be large enough and be comfortable.

HAS REGAINED HIS GRIP.

The Downfall and Recovery of Spencer Keene.

James R. Keene is coming up again, and in the right way. As fast as he realizes on his new ventures he pays the surplus on the debts he left when his big failure occurred in 1884.

This man's fame is national, and so it is a matter of national pride that he, like Henry Clews, S. V. White, Harry Meigs and many others, makes good in prosperity all who lost money by his adversity.

It is true that he could not otherwise acquire a first class standing in Wall Street, to which he aspires, but it is also to be noted that these are debts of honor in the fullest sense of the phrase.

Mr. Keene is a native of the south, he and his once famous partner, George Crouch, being of English parentage. He went to California in boyhood, became a lawyer, and while conducting mining cases was led into speculation.

His success was wonderful. One day he sprung a trap on Flood and O'Brien and cleared $2,500,000 in Belcher and Crown Point, and another time made $300,000 in Ophir.

In 1878 he went to New York with about $5,000,000. Wall street gossip ran to the effect that he had said he came east with a parlor car full of cash to drain Jay Gould, and that Gould replied that he would send Mr. Keene home in a freight car.

He did it—almost. Keene was crushed, but remained in New York. At first he and Mr. Crouch were partners with Mr. Gould in Atlantic and Pacific telegraph stock.

In 1878 Mr. Keene was embarrassed and gave up his fine house. In 1881 he was richer than ever. His son, the famous Foxhall Keene, was king of the turf. Both were triumphant.

Mr. James Keene studied the situation and decided that the long depression of 1873-9 was to be followed by as many years of continuous boom.

The public knows the rest. At one time he lost $3,000,000 in wheat. In 1883 everything dropped. Jay Gould never for one hour relaxed his relentless pursuit.

His brokers and secret agents, headed by the active Wash Connor, beat down every stock which Keene held. On the last day of his battle the latter paid $175,000 cash margins on his declining stocks, then posted his bankruptcy.

He moved his family to a modest dwelling at Far Rockaway, dispersed his fine stable and started at the bottom. Surely every generous heart will rejoice to learn that he is coming up again.

Ravages of Rabbits. In some sections of California and several of the northwestern states the people are beginning to realize that the remarkable stories told of the ravages of rabbits in Australia are true.

They are now suffering somewhat from the little pests themselves. The only effectual means of abating the nuisance so far discovered seems to be the "drive," in which a number of men form an enormous circle, which gets smaller and smaller as all walk slowly toward a central point, where little difficulty is found in slaughtering all the rabbits gathered in the "round up."

Tennyson's Wrath. "Vermin on the locks of literature" is the forcible but not very elegant phrase the poet Tennyson applies to those critics who accuse him of plagiarism.

With especial reference to Mr. Charlton Collins. It is severe, but from the quotations from Mr. Collins in the English periodicals most American readers will consider it just.

For instance, where Tennyson speaks of the ocean's "roar," Mr. Collins thinks it an imitation of Homer, and declares that when he speaks of a waterfall as "slow dropping veils of thinnest lawn" he got the idea from an imitation waterfall in a theater!

Congressman Clover's Wife. Kansas has had many celebrated women, but none is more noted just now than the wife of the Alliance congressman, Hon. D. H. Clover.

She has for the past two years managed a 1,600 acre farm with such ability that the woman suffragists declare that as soon as Kansas grants political privileges to women they will make Mrs. Clover governor.

It is freely admitted that the boom of 1891 helped her out wonderfully, but it takes genius to utilize a boom.

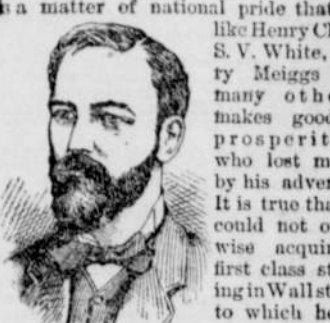

The Clovers. Located in Corvallis county in 1871, and for some years prospered greatly; all his means went into the land, and when the dull times for farmers came on he had 1,900 acres.

In 1890 it was plastered over the amount of about $19,000, and when he started on his political campaign that year his wife took charge. She has paid all the floating debts, all the mortgage indebtedness except $5,000, and improved the place considerably.

Personally Mrs. Clover does not correspond at all with the typical "hard working woman" of border romance and tragedy. She is quite a society leader in her neighborhood, dresses with unusually good taste, and is better educated than her husband.

He was born in Franklin county, O., in 1827, located in Kansas in 1871, and held no higher office than school commissioner before 1890. Out of his salary as congressman

He was born in Franklin county, O., in 1827, located in Kansas in 1871, and held no higher office than school commissioner before 1890. Out of his salary as congressman

J. R. KEENE.

HOPE D. H. CLOVER.