

JOTTINGS.

Go to Williams for drugs. t-f
W. S. Hays has a house to rent. t-f
Call and see our sample cases of job-work.
The city hall needs painting very much.
The Elmore had several passengers going out.
Pay up now and start in even with the new year.
The rivers are full of trout and steel-head salmon.
Prof. Oakes is conducting a dancing school in Hadley's Hall.
Evaporated apricots, 10lbs. for $1.00 at "Frisco store." 26-27
Subscriptions for any paper published taken at Lamb's t-f
Now is the time to do your advertising for holiday goods.
There was about four inches of snow at Glenora early this week.
It is reported that Wm. Randall and Miss Snow were married recently.
The social at G. A. R. Hall Thanksgiving night was a very pleasant affair.
The dance in Hadley's Hall Thanksgiving night was a very pleasant affair.
Ladies, call and see the new hats at Ruggles a Johnson's; only $1.50 to $5.00.
We pay 85 to 95cts. on the dollar for county orders, at "Frisco store." 26-27
One dollar in cash buys a sack of best flour in the world at "Frisco store." 26-27
WANTED:—County orders to the value of $3000 at the bank. C. & E. THAYER. 51
French mustard pickles, and Worcester-shire sauce in bulk at "Frisco store." 26-27
The steamer Truckee sailed for San Francisco Saturday with 350,000 feet of lumber.
There will be a spirited contest for Marshal and for Recorder at the election Monday.
Some enormous wire cables came in on the Elmore. They are for the ferries on Wilson river.
Trespass notices. "No hunting allowed," at Lamb's. Statutory form only 5cts each.
P. R. Reisdorfer, formerly known here as "Peter the stage driver," is in Avon, South Dakota.
Lamb has an attractive display of fine French candies. Nothing like it ever seen here before.
The Bay City Co-operative Co. has at last settled with the men who did logging for the establishment.
Those who expect to bring wood in payment for subscription will please do so as soon as possible.
Geo. L. Smith, formerly of this place, and his brother, William, are in the furniture business in Forest Grove.
G. W. Kiger of Bay City loans money to responsible parties, on approved security. See his advertisement elsewhere.
You will find at "Frisco store" the largest assortment of pure coffee, tea, and choice Eastern bacon, in the county.
You will find the best assortment of late styles of winter dress goods and trimmings to match at "Frisco store," in the county.
Marriage licenses were issued last week to R. M. Bays and Mrs. Susan B. Davis, and to Harry E. Warren and Katie Morris.
Scraper's Lumber and Log Books at Lamb's only 35cts. Latest edition. Every logger or mill man should have one.
Twenty per cent. is saved by buying dry good, boots and shoes, clothing, hats and caps, groceries, etc., etc., at "Frisco store." 26-27
The Firemen will have a ball on Monday night following Christmas, so it is reported. Christmas comes on Sunday this year.
Mrs. J. E. Ross is going out into the country to live in a short time and those wishing perforated stamping done should call at once.
Joe Davidson's team and wagon started east on the main road last week with no driver. They ran a long way, but little damage was done.
Mr. D. N. Burns of Neskowin has been here over a week to prove up on his claim. One of the witnesses was late, but arrived Wednesday and proof was made.
The Steamer Elmore went out safely over the bar Wednesday morning, and will be back here again shortly unless a most furious storm is raging.
Slides, fallen trees and high water have made the Wilson river road impassable lately, but the obstructions have now been removed or have disappeared.
The Augusta got out of the bay this morning. The bar was rather rough, but the recent competition is causing the Augusta to move around a little more lively than usual.
Deeds, Mortgages, Bonds for Deeds, and other legal blanks, the latest approved forms, well printed and on the best quality of paper, at Portland prices, at Lamb's book store. t-f
Hadley & Endum will have an auction sale Saturday at the Hutchins corner and will sell the remnant of N. A. Hutchins' stock of goods without reserve. Call if you wish to buy goods at your own price.
FOR SALE:—The building formerly occupied by the HEADLIGHT will be sold at a bargain. The building is substantial, and will be moved to any lot in town for a small sum in addition to the price asked.

Just received at Ruggles a Johnson's millinery store, a nice assortment of ladies and children's felt hats, all colors.
The snow in the mountains and the recent storm has been rather hard on the telegraph line, but on Mr. Coates' return Wednesday evening the line was working through to Forest Grove in good shape.
A few nights ago someone tried to break into the post-office here by prying the back window open. The noise awakened Mrs. Sverance, and the would-be burglar fled. The window was pried loose and fell inside.
Tillamook Lodge No. 57 A. F. & A. M. will hold its regular Communication Saturday evening, Dec. 3, 1892. Election of officers. All members and visiting brethren invited. By order W. M. B. C. LAMB, Sec.
The Elmore came to the wharf in this city last Sunday and departed Tuesday morning. The Elmore will run here right along whenever the weather will permit. She will run as often as possible and can be depended upon to make quick trips.
But few of those receiving nomination for city offices accepted. The ticket, in another column, shows those who accepted. Wm. M. Hamilton for Marshal and Theo. Steinbiller for Recorder, were placed on the ticket by petition from legal votes.
The City Council met last Saturday night. Little business of importance was transacted. The bill of the Electric Light Co. for street lighting was laid over until next meeting. An ordinance to prevent persons making indecent exposure was read the first time.
The best way to get a bad law repealed is to enforce it, and the same rule applies to city ordinances. If any of the ordinances are unjust or unnecessary, enforce them, and they will be wiped out. It is not fair to enforce one ordinance and pay no attention to the others.
Johnny Gabrielson, formerly salesman in Wm. Olsen's store here, has secured license as a sea captain, and will probably take charge of some sealing schooner next season. He has had considerable experience in the sealing business and was first mate on a sealing schooner last year.
Have you seen Lamb's confectionery show case since the Elmore came in? 'Tis a goodly sight with its luscious refreshing of creams and fruit and nut confections. Rich? Ah! And sweet as the primal kiss from maiden's lips. And the French bonbons, and jars of perfumed candy cuts. Try 'em, and be happy.
The Horn Creek Bugle arrived last week again after a rest of four weeks. It makes excuse on account of the blockade and high water, but we think it really had a difficulty with the Sheriff, as it announces that it is about to resume payment. We give a few items from it in another column. The Bugle is a little racy this week.
Notwithstanding the fact that a creamery will be built in this town, the farmers in the country east of town propose to go right ahead and build a creamery also. There is no doubt but both will pay for the start, and even another one on South Prairie would pay also. There ought to be several creameries in the county now.
Word was received Saturday from Glenora, on Wilson river, that Robert Hicks, of that place, while fording the south fork of the river was swept away with his horse by the power of the current. He succeeded in reaching the shore, being carried down several rods. His horse was carried down about a half a mile, where he was found later, strange to say not drowned.—Forest Grove Times.
C. W. Smith attached the loose machinery at William's saw mill at Bay City to satisfy a claim he had against Williams for logging. The Vulcan Iron Works of San Francisco stepped in and claimed the property, and a trial as to right of property was held last Saturday, resulting in Mr. Smith retaining control of it.
T. B. Handley was his attorney.
The barometer has been very low of late and there have been some disastrous storms at sea and on land. At last accounts the Augusta and Elmore were in the bay and other vessels due have not attempted to come in. The Columbia bar is also very rough and big vessels do not venture in at present. LATER—The Elmore and Augusta got out.
There will be a meeting held in the M. E. Church, December 6, 1892, at 7 P. M., for the purpose of nominating committees to make the necessary arrangements to celebrate Christmas by having a Christmas tree on December 24, 1892, for the children of Tillamook. It is hoped that all persons interested in pleasing the young people will attend said meeting and co-operate in making the celebration a success.
There are places on the street where the water backs up, forming unsightly ponds right at the most prominent crossings. It is not the looks of the matter so much, but it is the damage to the streets. A few hours' work every week would obviate all this. It would not be much trouble for the city marshal to go around every few days and drain off the surplus water. Before voting for any of the candidates for city marshal we should require a promise that this matter will be attended to. The city council might help matters a little by ordering the marshal to do this work, as the marshal is also street superintendent.

It is said there was an ordinance proposed at the city council meeting Saturday night, the intention of which was "To prevent saloons from selling liquor without license." The council informed the promoter that such an ordinance was already in existence, in fact a lengthy ordinance was passed soon after the organization of the city "to prevent parties selling liquor without paying $400 license." This ordinance should be strictly enforced, as well as some other ordinances.
The comet which was expected to come in close conflict with this world last Sunday night, did not materialize, or at least it could not be seen. The barometer was very low at the time and a storm was raging, the sky being very cloudy. Some parties here claimed they saw a meteoric display on Monday night, but the report is not authentic. One man who stayed out rather late declares he saw four moons dancing around like fire flies but such phenomena are not uncommon for men who stay out late.
PERSONAL.
Chas. Seamon, of Nehalem, was here Tuesday.
J. E. Tuttle went to Portland on business this week.
Wm. Heitnitzer, of Nehalem beach, was here this week.
Wm. Olsen, the merchant, is in San Francisco on business.
Mr. E. B. Chamberlain, of Sand Lake was in the city Tuesday.
A. P. Wilson returned from a trip to Portland last Saturday.
Mrs. A. L. Alderman of Garibaldi was in the city this week.
Jacob B. Wertz, of Glenwood, Oregon, was here on business Tuesday.
Tom Coates, operator has been out all week repairing the telegraph line.
Mr. Townsend, the creamery man, of Portland, was in the city last week.
J. Spencer, an attorney of McMinnville, was in the city last week on legal business.
Geo. Means and his daughter Maudie were passengers on the Elmore bound for Portland.
Mrs. Hutchins and family, after being shut in two weeks on Wilson river passed on through to Forest Grove Saturday.
Joe Gaptill came from Hobsonville Saturday and spent Sunday here. Mrs. Gaptill has been here about two weeks for medical treatment.
Educational.
Miss Mable Page is attending the city school.
Four pupils in the Bay City school will enter the spring examination and make an effort to secure the graduating diploma.
Fair View school has organized a class in book keeping.
Miss Katie E. Pierce has just received a Life Diploma granted by the State Department.
A letter from our old friend J. E. Hosmer announces that the students of Mountmouth have started a college paper and that he is business manager.
Geo. and Lyman Lamb of South Prairie have the honor of being elected among the most advanced students in the public schools of Tillamook county.
The time for the next Teacher's Association has been indefinitely postponed but if it pleases the teachers to do so, an Institute may be held during the Christmas holidays.
The directors in school district No. 1 (Fair View) have ordered a fine school bell which will probably arrive on the next boat.
Garibaldi.
The fishing season is over and the Chinamen will leave soon.
M. A. Rose intends to move to Templeton, San Luis Obispo Co., Cal.
During the storm a slide at Hobsonville buried J. Thorall's blacksmith shop.
Road Supervisor Carter reports $300 delinquent road taxes for this district.
The road around the beach is impassable on account of slides. The location of the road should be changed for a considerable distance where it goes down to the beach.
REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.
Transfers of real property to Nov. 20, 1892, as recorded in the office of the County Clerk of Tillamook County, Or.
W. & J. Elliott to A. E. Barber, lots 9 and 10, Bar View Addition to Bay City, $150.00.
Bay City Land Co. to J. H. Glengrich, lots 7 and 8, block 18, Central Addition, $125.00.
Paul Schraeder to F. Worthington, e 1/2 of lots 16, McCoy's Addition to Bay City, $250.00.
Wm. Ryan to D. Ryan, 160 acres in section 24 and 13, 1 n, 8 w, $850.00.
M. U. Trowbridge to A. J. Bauman, s 1/2 of s w 1/4, n e 1/4 of s w 1/4 and n w 1/4 of s e 1/4, section 15, 3 n, 10 w, $621.00.
MR. HOWELL'S FUTURE PLANS.
While Mr. Howells will not, during 1893, confine his literary work to any single periodical, it may be authoritatively announced that he has entered into a contract with The Ladies' Home Journal whereby his most important work will for some time to come, first see print in the pages of that magazine. His new novel, "The Coast of Bohemia," begins in the Christmas issue of the Journal, and immediately upon its close Mr. Howells will begin in the magazine a series of editorial autobiographical papers, in which he will trace the influences which led him to a literary life, his course of reading and his favorite authors and books. The articles will practically tell the story of the famous novelist's life, and promise to possess in a rare degree that attractive interest which always attaches itself to the life of a successful man when told by himself. Howells had his early struggle; his early resources were few, and these he will trace among other things in these articles, describing, too, how he mastered four different languages to acquaint himself with the literature of the countries most attractive to him.
The First Headlight.
We clip a few items from the first issue of the HEADLIGHT, dated June 8, 1888. These little clippings show that Tillamook has made some progress, to say the least, and they also show that the editor of the paper at that time, J. B. Edwards, was a versatile genius, though his stay here was rather short.
The first $5 bill was handed us by our wide-awake citizen, Dr. Patchen.
A young colt belonging to Mrs. Hutchins gave up the ghost on Tuesday, and now wears wings.
Mr. Blackwell's eyes came in contact with the busy bee on Tuesday. The bee knocked him out the first round.
The Messrs. Haushurst brothers of Hobsonville, called on ye editor this week and found congratulatory talk. Thanks.
P. H. M. Smith, one Uncle Sam's trusty boys smole a smile upon us Tuesday, and remarked he would remember us in his prayers.
"Cast your bread upon the waters and it will return after many days,"—so deposit your wealth to the fullest extent with the HEADLIGHT, and one year from today we will guarantee each and all of you a genuine surprise party.
A. P. Wilson, of Hobsonville, gave us a pleasant call Tuesday morning. Mr. Wilson congratulated the HEADLIGHT substantially, and said it was bound to "get there Eli." And his prophecy shall not be in vain.
"We are informed by Mr. W. J. Smith that there is a vast amount of vacant farm land on Wilson river awaiting some enterprising person who wishes to make a home and fortune in Tillamook county. To immigrants this would prove a boon, being of ready access to markets, etc."
"Commissioner W. N. Vaughn, of Kilebis, sent the editor a sample strawberry in memorial day measuring seven inches in circumference and four inches in diameter. If there is any doubt in the minds of easterners that this is no fruit country, let them dispel that idea at once. People in this county frequently chew out apples and use them for rain sheds, to say nothing of the pumpkin crop."
"The HEADLIGHT, in all its glory, to-day sheds its radiant rays, upon something less than one million readers, and as time rolls on in its majestic greatness we anticipate something greater even than all this. All things have a beginning, but although our proportions are somewhat smaller than the leading journals of the Union, who can foresee the future to prophesy that we will not be able, in a few years, to cope with the greatest journals of the age."
Madlux, the Mountainer mail agent, came into the sanctum of our quietude with a rush and a bang and said: "Put me down for a half dozen copies of that Boomerang of yours. I ain't with a continental horse fly, but I don't propose seeing you starve, and besides, I want to see if you have good horse sense." And down he went for six copies. If any of our readers wish to enjoy themselves let them take a trip across the mountains with ye grankee Madlux, and that will settle it.
People who live in far distant climes and imagine that Tillamook is a place somewhere, where no one can get to it, will be surprised to learn that while Seattle has been busy raising $1200 towards a celebration for the 4th of July, Tillamook has done, at least, half as well, and will give a three day's source of pleasure. To parties in quest of enjoyment, no better treat can be had than to come to Tillamook and put in three solid, substantial, hearty days of celebration interspersed with fishing, etc.

and they are in a good state of preservation, some of them seeming to have been filled with copper. The teeth and implements will be sent to the Smithsonian Institute at Washington in a short time. Everybody who has seen the lay-out is non-plussed, and one scientist ventured the assertion that the remains indicate that this country was inhabited at one time by anthropophagi.
Inquiries Answered.
A man from away back east writes us to find out if he can get good government land here yet. He wants to know the kind of soil on the bottom land and on the bench land. He is particular to know how far from Tillamook a man would have to go to get a piece of government land. This letter is only a sample of many that we receive. Some people at a distance seem to have an idea that a man can get good farms from the government on good roads, near a town and ready for the plow. It is a mistaken idea. All the choice prairie and bottom lands in this county and especially near this city were taken many years ago. Since that time many valuable places here and there have been found, and even yet a good piece of land is occasionally found by some one who is acquainted with the country and has the patience to hunt it out. Within the past two or three years many settlers have found good homes along Wilson, Trask, Nehalem and Nestucca rivers by going back a few miles into the interior. These lands consist of bottom, bench and hill lands, and are generally covered with a heavy growth of timber or brush, and a few small claims may be found yet. There is no trouble about the soil anywhere. It is all very rich and productive. It takes much hard work to clear out a ranch in such places, but it takes little of such land to produce a living. There are roads running all through the county, yet the chances are that the settlers would have to carry their provisions and implements at first over a pack trail for a short distance, all the way from a half a mile to five miles. Such lands are from five miles to twenty-five miles from Tillamook City, though there are many post-offices and stores located in various parts of the county. About five miles west of Tillamook city on the Cape Mears peninsula, there are a few sections of hill and bench land which is covered with a heavy growth of hemlock. At present the timber there is not valuable, but the land is good. There are many localities in the mountains ten or fifteen miles away where good timber land, with some bottom, may be had yet. Anyone who expects to take government domain here should have enough capital to live on for a year and enough energy to clear away the brush or timber. Otherwise, this is no place for settlers. It takes hard work to make headway here as well as elsewhere. Those who can't stand a few hardships have no business settling in the wilds of this county. Those who can stand a few hard knocks and are willing to do a little labor, can in a few years become independent by coming here and homing out homes in the forest.
Everett, Washington.
Prof. Ganland, wife and son, aged 10 years, and Miss Thompson, all consisting of Ganland's Orchestra, left here in a yacht Saturday morning for Marysville to furnish music at an Odd Fellows hall, which was to be given there that evening. The yacht was picked up by the steamer Mabel, Sunday morning as she came into port. Prof. Ganland's violin and a box of music sheets were still in the boat which was full of water, but nothing could be learned of the fate of the occupants. It is supposed that the heavy surf carried them out to sea. Prof. Ganland has a brother-in-law, and two sisters, living at Ashland, Oregon.
Mr. Anderson, of West Superior, has arrived in town, and will superintend the construction of the new whale back barge which is to be built at this place to fill the vacancy of the Charles E. Wetmore which stranded near Coos Bay.
There are several cases of small pox at Snohomish, Seattle and Tacoma.
Mr. Newton, of Bay City, Ore., was in town last week.
C. H. Libby, formerly of Tillamook, is superintending the construction of several mining camps at the Monte Cristo mines.
J. D. Estes, of Bay City, Ore., is running a first class bakery at this place.
The Snohomish river has been higher for the past three days than it has been before for twenty years. People living on low lands had to be taken from the upstairs windows Saturday morning in boats.
M. F. McNeill.
Forked Lightning.
During the storm here Monday there was a terrific display of thunder and lightning. The telegraph wire was struck and the lightning ran into the office which is in the HEADLIGHT office. There was a loud report and a blinding flash at the instruments. The fighting editor and devil crawled under the table in the press room and couldn't be coaxed out for two hours. The snake editor just winced a little and moved his chair back a few inches, to give the thunderbolt a clear right of way.
There was a vivid electrical display all along the wires of the electric light lines.
Notices.
All accounts against the late A. B. Hallack will be paid on presentation to Ed. Hallack or T. B. Handley at Tillamook.
24

The Creamery.
Mr. T. S. Townsend of the firm of Ogden & Townsend, of Portland, has been here again on business pertaining to the starting of a creamery here. Definite arrangements are being made, and a man will soon be here to begin operations in fitting up the building and putting in the machinery. The machinery is expected to arrive here the last of December, and everything will be in readiness for the spring business. A complete outfit for butter and cheese making will be put in, and the enterprise will be conducted by experienced and skillful men, and on business principles. Messrs. Ogden & Townsend are confident they can find a market for all the butter they can make here at a price far in advance of the usual prices paid for Tillamook butter, and there is no doubt but an institution of this kind will bring many thousands of dollars into Tillamook every year.
It is understood, also, that parties east of this city intend establishing a co-operative creamery in this county. One thing sure, after one creamery is started here, there will be several others follow in the near future.
Man Drowned.
There are several vague reports about a man being drowned in the Little Nestucca river near the bay about two weeks ago. As near as can be ascertained four men were in a boat duck hunting, when the boat was capsized by a squall, and one man sank out of sight, while the others managed to get ashore. Mr. Commons is the man who is alleged to have been drowned, and it is said he was a merchant of Woods, or a relative of the Woods merchant. P. S. Dye of this place received a letter from Mr. Daly of Oreg-town saying he was one of the party in the boat, and that two men were drowned. Strange to say, he did not give the names of the drowned men in his letter.
They Feast on "Sore Backs."
T. C. McNamee, the enterprising proprietor of the Forest Grove Meat Market, received a wagon load of salmon from the Nehalem Saturday. The Nehalem Journal has the following: The finest run of fall salmon known here in many years is now in the river. The water is literally alive with an unusually fine quality of fish and everybody who can buy or borrow a spear is enjoying the intensely exciting and quite profitable sport of killing salmon and so plentiful are the fish that one man can kill 200 of them in a day. The fish are large, clean and fat and all that can be taken are salted and dried, the latter process being a highly successful and satisfactory mode of curing them.—Forest Grove Times.
County Warrants Payable.
There are funds in the Treasurer's office for the payment of the following numbered county warrants: No. 354, 348, 329, 330, 330, 326, 350, 333, 357, 347, 346, 327, 328, 332, 358, 488. No interest will be paid on these after this date.
Dated Nov. 30, 1892.
GEO. COHN, Treasurer.
Married.
Wedding invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Mary Williams to E. T. Simmons at the residence of E. D. Simmons in Portland on November 28. The bride has many friends here, this being her old home. The groom is a well-to-do citizen of Portland.
Judges and Clerks, City Election.
Following is a list of judges and clerks for the city election next Monday. Judges: David Reasner, A. A. Ford and H. P. Morgan. Clerks: J. H. Bower and J. W. Lawless.
OFFICIAL BALLOT
For Tillamook City, Oregon: to be voted Monday, December 5, 1892.
Mark out the names you do not wish to vote for.
FOR TRUSTEES:—Vote for three.
12. GEO. EDWARDS,..... Citizens.
13. D. M. OLIVER,..... Citizens.
14. R. D. PECKHAM,..... Citizens.
FOR RECORDER:—Vote for one.
15. C. N. DREW,..... Citizens.
16. THEO. STEINBILDER,..... Petitioner.
FOR MARSHAL:—Vote for one.
17. J. W. HASKINS,..... Peoples.
18. W. M. HAMILTON,..... Petitioner.
19. D. H. SEXTON,..... Citizens.
FOR TREASURER.
20. GEO. COHN,..... Citizens.
FOR CITY ATTORNEY:

Money to Loan.
to responsible parties on approved securities.
GEO. W. KIGER, Bay City, Ore.
Timber Lands for Sale.
Also one section of agricultural land, in lots to suit purchasers. Time or cash. Call on or address
E. M. KEYS, Trask, Oregon.
24