

JOTTINGS.

Cohn & Co. buy eggs at 25 cts. Save your self money and buy at King's. King has prices that are ascending to the times.

FOR SALE—Old office building of HEADLIGHT.

The Augusta took out a load of lumber for Cohn & Co.

Cleveland arrested—and so are high prices at King's.

Mrs. A. W. Severance went to Salem, leaving on the Augusta.

On Monday the total number of bills in the legislature was 289.

Geo. Means and Geo. Woodruff came in on the steamer Elmore.

Furs of all kinds bring the highest market price at Cohn & Co's.

It won't hurt you to step in at King's and get his prices. It will do you good.

Better pay your dog tax at once if you have a dog. Look out for the marshal.

Lamb has received a big shipment of cigars, the best brands, per steamer Augusta.

Two of these barns on Trask river were blown down by the east wind last Saturday.

King has a few of those fine children's cloaks that you can get at your own price (for cash).

The Tillamook Dairy Association, east of town, expect to have their creamery ready by spring.

Did you say the times were hard? You will say so when you see how cheap King is selling goods.

A movement is on foot to organize a joint stock company to operate the creamery at Woods.

Paste this in your hat and don't forget. Cash will secure you the best prices on every thing a Kingings.

Christian Pyritz, of Unpqua, has located here. He has bought J. Embum's place on the Goodspeed addition.

The L. A. S. of the Christian church will give a basket social at the church, Friday night Jan. 27. All are invited.

Mrs. Estelle Thayer went to Portland on the steamer Augusta. She will visit with her relatives in Salem for a while.

F. S. Fairbank, supervisor of R. D. 7, informs us that the Wilson river bridge by Freeman's is fixed and perfectly safe now.

The Augusta came in Monday with a cargo of freight. Capt. F. A. Dodge and Chas. Helmsstroem were among the passengers.

The telegraph line was opened through Forest Grove on Tuesday. It is thought there will be little trouble in keeping the line open the balance of the winter.

All the bills of particular interest, and especially those relating to Tillamook county, that have been introduced are mentioned in our report of the Legislature.

Senator J. W. Maxwell has been placed on the following important committees: Commerce, Public Lands, and Printing. Representative Lanson was placed on the Labor Committee in the house.

It is rumored that there will be an effort made in the present legislature to cut off a portion of the south end of this county and give it to Yamhill county, but we think the scheme will not work.

Don't forget that the time for getting the New York Tribune runs out Feb. 1. Anyone who does not receive his Tribune in the next two weeks will please call at this office, and we shall write to the publishers.

The city marshal is on the watchout for the small boys who loiter about the streets after night. The ordinance provides for their arrest if they are found on the streets without business, after nine o'clock.

The assessment of Tillamook county has been raised ten per cent. on real property in this county. Some minor changes were made in personal property, but not enough to change the aggregate very much.

A rush of advertising at the last hour crowds out some advertising this week. Remember, however, when the HEADLIGHT prospers, the profits are used in making additions to the plant and in improving the paper.

The steamer South Coast of San Francisco came to the Cooperage Co's wharf at Bay City Tuesday to land with staves for San Francisco. The South Coast ran on the route from Hobsonville to San Francisco regularly a few years ago.

If you wish good reading matter, say a few choice books, at a small cost, call at Lamb's bookstore. He also keeps the leading magazines for sale at all times. You will always find his shelves stocked with current literature—something to suit everyone.

Thos. Wiling, the creamery man, is here, and is making arrangements to go ahead with the creamery. He is not yet decided whether to build or lease a building, but he assures us that the plant will be here and in operation by the last of February at the latest.

D. Howard filed complaint against L. Crenshaw for assault with deadly weapon. The preliminary trial came up before Judge Mansby Monday and Mr. Crenshaw was bound over to appear next Circuit Court, the bond being fixed at $1000. Crenshaw then instituted a replevin suit for the saloon building and Sheriff Edwards took charge of it Tuesday.

A large lot of new goods for Dr. Johnson's drug store came in on the steamer Augusta. Dr. Petre may be found there at all times to dispense drugs and medicines. A full line of drugs and patent medicines is kept in stock at all times, besides all kinds of toilet articles, druggists' notions, stationery, etc.

H. E. Johnson brought 200,000 feet of fine mountain spruce logs, from Bewley creek, to the mill recently, and it is being sawed for the Portland market. The Augusta to take out 31,000 feet of the lumber last trip. The spruce that grows in the mountains is much superior to that which grows on the tide lands, being free from knots.

The new city council met Saturday night. A few small bills were ordered paid, among them $21.60 to A. W. Severance for writing the new charter and $2.62 to the HEADLIGHT for printing. The council decided to present a petition to every taxpayer in the city in order to get the sentiment of the people in regard to the electric light contract.

Dave Howard came in last week and appeared before Recorder Drew. He was fined $18, costs and all, for the trouble he had with Crenshaw over the saloon building. He took an appeal, Chas. Wells and Frank Daugherty going on his bonds. After transacting his business he took into the front door of the saloon building in dispute and took possession.

The Elmore came in rather unexpectedly last Friday. It was the intention to lay her up in Astoria for remodeling at that time, but several passengers were in Astoria to get here, so she made another trip. The new fixtures are all ready now to be placed on the boat, and she will probably be in Astoria now for two or three weeks while the changes are being made.

The Tillamook Lumbering Co. is turning out some fine lumber now. They have a large shed where they keep the floring, rustic, finishing lumber, etc. in first-class shape. Their terms for selling lumber have been modified. All bills must be paid within thirty days, after which time, if not paid, they charge interest. A ten per cent. discount is made from the regular price for spot cash.

GILFORD STILLWELL.

[Through the courtesy of the Salem Statesman, we present to our readers the picture of Gilford Stillwell. The cut is from the New Year's edition of the Statesman, from which we copied a sketch of Mr. Stillwell last week.]

The settlers on Netarts bay have shown great enterprise in building a road from the lower end of the bay to the head. Several long bridges, on piling, are being constructed, and the road when finished will be one of the most expensive pieces of road in the county. It will open the way to a beach that is unsurpassed on this coast. J. H. Jackson's untiring energy did a great deal to further the scheme.

The wholesale market in Portland on Jan. 12 showed but little difference from the week previous: Oats 41 to 43c, potatoes 90c to $1 per sack, chickens (old) $4.50 to $5.00, young chickens $3.50 to $4.00, onions 90 cts. to $1.00 per sack, eggs 30 cts., flour $1.40 to $1.50. Bacon—sides 12 1/2 cts. to 13 1/2 cts., hams 15 cts. to 16 cts., shoulders 8 1/2 cts. to 9 cts. Butter—brine 30 cts to 35 cts. per roll store 25 cts. to 30 cts. per roll, dairy 65 cts. to 70 cts. per roll.

The Olsen Smuggling Case

The government officials are still seeking evidence in the case and are looking for the Chinamen that were brought in. It is thought they are in San Francisco. It is the intention to make as strong a case as possible before the matter is brought before the Federal grand jury. The fines for Capt. Deering would amount to $35,000 if all the charges against him are proven, besides the five year's imprisonment. Mr. Olsen is anxious to get his schooner free so as to send her on another sealing expedition, but the government officials seem to be in no hurry.

It will be a sad blow to Mr. Olsen if his boat should be confiscated, to say nothing of the penal prosecution, and it is to be hoped he will get off as easy as possible, though bringing Chinamen into this country against the laws, is rather oddous to say the least.

The Chronicle recently published an article regarding the nature of a presented picture of Mr. Olsen, which was such a poor likeness of him, and so ill timed, that his punist went in earnest. The cut made him look like a desperate criminal, and is almost as severe on him as being sent to prison.

She Killed a Bear

On the morning of the first day of February 1893, Mrs. George Landingham a sister-in-law of Robt. Putnam, of this city, performed a daring deed, the principal trophy of which is a large bear skin now to be seen in Mr. Putnam's harness shop. Mrs. Landingham lives with her husband and family near Woods, Tillamook county, and for several days previous to the morning mentioned she had been annoyed by some animal, presumably brain. On this morning Mrs. Landingham was attracted by the barking of the dogs and going where she could see the cause of their excitement she beheld a large black bear. It was about 150 yards from the house, coming along leisurely, only pausing to ward off the attacks of the dogs. Mr. L. was absent at the time, being engaged on some other part of the ranch. The lady quietly walked back and seized the Winchester rifle, hurried to the scene and when he came up seven more shots from the rifle splashed the bear. It was a very large one and the skin which lies in Mr. Putnam's shop, is quite interesting when you are acquainted with its history. Mrs. Landingham is said to be fond of sport, the above instance being but one of the many in which she has aided her husband in slaying the fierce denizens of the forest.—Toppun.

Albert O. Yates has recovered his health and spirit after a severe tussle with the tiger.

An effort will probably be made to induce some of the parents in this district to attend the next term of school.

The outside world must not imagine that we Nostucans are not without hope. We have a railroad which is being rapidly pushed forward, on paper.

Our worthy friends, Fred Scherzinger and wife, will soon move onto their ranch on the coast, below Oretown. They have our best wishes for the future success of the firm.

It has been, truly, said, that "one swallow does not make a summer" but it is our honest wish that three or four swallows of a certain leverage kept at Woods will cause a man to forget his ancestors.

In speaking of hunting, we wish to call attention to the fact that Messrs. Andrew and Lee Commons slew a very fat and juicy bear a few days ago, and the hunk, Andrew sent us, was all bear, but not dangerous.

At my future time, some prospectors may discover a lead mine on the shores of Nostucca bay! Since early fall the loom of the shotgun and yager have been a part of the daily program. Many ducks and geese have been, accidentally killed, the wounded, being a doubtful quantity, can never be estimated.

The good house-wives have not made their soft soap for '93 yet, but the subject is almost ripe. All subjects concerning the late campaign and probable construction of the Nicaragua canal must take a back seat until the necessary adjunct of civilization is disposed of. There is nothing like soap that is soft—when given a fair show.

Bay City.

A number of new residences are going up in the east part of town and give evidence of the near approach of activity in building operations in all quarters.

The Cooperage Company are making preparations to greatly enlarge their mill and increase their output, both of lumber and cooperage stock. They will also build a new wharf in the early spring.

A special communication of Bay City Lodge No. 102, A. F. & A. M. will be held Thursday evening, the 19th. Work in F. C. degree. All Mas. are in good standing are cordially invited. Miles Warren W. M.

Geo. W. Kiger, the capitalist, returned from Portland on the Augusta. Mr. Kiger says he had no practical use for his appetite during the voyage and from his emaciated appearance when he disembarked we are inclined to believe the statement.

The steamer South Coast from San Francisco arrived in on Tuesday morning and is taking on lumber from the California and Oregon Cooperage Co's mill. She will sail for San Francisco on Thursday, the 29th. She reports 26 feet of water on the bar.

The social event of the season was the basket sociable given at the Winfield House on last Wednesday evening by the ladies and friends of the M. E. Church. It was attended by about 100 of Bay City people and quite a number from Hobsonville. It was an exceedingly pleasant affair.

Academic and Normal Institute.

TO OUR STUDENT FRIENDS, GREETING. We will conduct an Academic School and Normal Institute in this city for a term of ten weeks beginning on or about the first Monday in March, 1893. We are better prepared than ever to furnish a good school. (a) To students who wish to secure the common School Diploma, (b) To students who aim to become teachers, (c) To teachers who are ambitious to raise their grade of certificate or are working for the Life Diploma, (1) To young men who wish a business training in the commercial branches.

For full particulars call in person at address.

Mrs. Dr. May, or E. K. BARNARD, Teachers.

A Fine Line.

Yes, it is a fine line, but Cohn & Co. have just received per steamer Augusta a fine line of goods for all their various departments. Remember they receive large lots of new goods by every steamer, and their stock is always fresh and well selected. As they buy in large lots, and are connected with a wholesale house in Portland, they can sell more goods for the money than you can get elsewhere. They buy produce, eggs and butter, and all kinds of furs that are marketable.

Oretown Vaporings.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids, with plans and specifications, will be received by the county court of Tillamook county, State of Oregon, for the building of a bridge across the Wilson river, near the residence of S. O. Wickland; also for the building of a bridge across a slough, on the lands formerly owned by W. G. Kelsey; also for the building of a bridge across Trask river, near the residence of William Johnson, all in the County of Tillamook, State of Oregon. All bids must be filed on or before the 8th day of March 1893. The Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids. By order of the Court: Attest W. W. COSDER, County Clerk.

Cupid's Victims.

A great quartet they always said
Geo Pettit, at his table fed.
For months Geo Cohn was always there
And Jones and Perley Hiatt fair.

And Lamb, not mutton that men eat.
Twas B. C. Lamb they'd always meet.
And then one chair was dropped in black
Twas Jones, whose presence made the lack.

They mourned him long, the trio left,
Thus of his presence rude bereft.
But still lived on, a joyous three
And sauced their meals with repartee.

Devoiced Old George's wholesome store
Drummed on their plates and yelled for more.
Ogled his girls with jest and coo,
And eke would stand his good dame off.

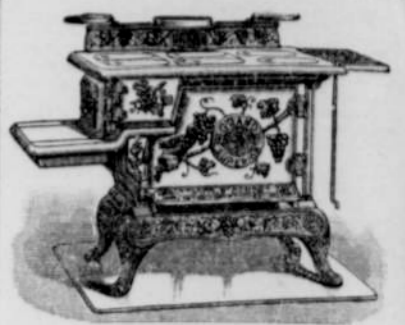

Poor Jones would always cast an eye,
At this gay crowd when hurrying by,
And mourn, belike of the ancient days,
The old B-hemian happy ways.

But now alas! the scene has changed,
Once more has Cupid 'mong them ranged,
Tawnged his stiff bow, let fly his dart
And pierced poor Hiatt's gentle heart.

And Lamb and Cohn with solemn mien
Gaze sadly at the dismal scene.
Of dark draped chair and empty place
And mourn for Hiatt's gladsome face.

It is not grief alone they feel
When gathered at the lonely meal;
Grim Apprehension racks their heart
Lest that same barbed ranking dart.

Shall separate the lonesome pair
And one be left to gaze at air.
To desolately, sadly dine,
And at the table lonely shine.
