OFFICIAL PAPER OF TILLAMOOK COUNTY.

W. F. D. JONES - EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.
DR. T. H. MESEROLE, ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

THE NEW SALARY LAW.

County officials will now receive stipulated salaries. Following are the salaries allowed in a few of the counties:

Washington.—Sheriff, $2500; one deputy, $800; county clerk, $2200; one deputy, $800; recorder of conveyances, $1500; one deputy, $600.

Yamhill.—Sheriff, $2000; deputy, $600; county clerk, $1800; one deputy, $600; recorder of conveyances, $1400; deputy, $600.

Polk.—Sheriff, $1600; one deputy, $600; county clerk, $1600; recorder of conveyances, $1000.

Sherman.—Sheriff, $1800; county clerk, $1200.

Tillamook.—Sheriff, $1600; deputy, $600; county clerk, $1500.

HOW THE SALARIES SHALL BE PAID.

The salaries provided for county clerks, recorders of conveyances, clerks of the circuit courts and county courts, and sheriffs, shall be audited and paid in monthly payments. And no one of such officials shall be entitled to receive any fees or other compensation for his services than as above provided (and except as hereinafter provided, except for furnishing to private parties copies of the records and files in his office, for their benefit and convenience, in which case he shall be entitled to charge such private parties thereof at the rate of 10 cents a folio, but shall not be entitled to anything for authenticating such copies, beyond including the number of words contained in the certificate of authentication in his computation of the number of folios.)

WHAT THE SHERIFF IS ENTITLED TO.

The sheriff shall be entitled to receive the same compensation now allowed by law for the board and keeping of prisoners confined in the county jail. He shall also be entitled to receive to his own use any reward offered in pursuance of law for the apprehension of any person charged with or suspected of crime, where he has earned the same by a compliance with such offer; and to receive from the state the fees now allowed by law for transporting and conveying convicts to the state penitentiary, and insane or idiotic persons to the state asylum, when conveyed by him in pursuance of the adjudication of an authorized tribunal of the state. Sheriffs shall also be entitled to claim from the plaintiffs or moving parties in any suit, action or proceeding, such reasonable sums of money as they may have been compelled to pay or incur on account of the care of property in their custody under attachment, execution, or proceeding for the claim and delivery of personal property. Where sheriffs are required to travel into another county or state to make an arrest or receive a prisoner already in custody, he shall receive, upon filing with the county court an expense account duly verified, his actual and necessary expense incurred in making such arrest and in returning such prisoner, to be audited in like manner as other claims, aims the county.

CORONERS.

Coroners shall be entitled to the same fees now allowed for the performance of services in an action suit, or proceeding, where the sheriff is a party, and the party paying the same shall be entitled to recover the amount paid from the adverse party as a disbursement when entitled to cost in the case.

DEPUTIES.

Whenever any county clerk, recorder of conveyances, clerk of the circuit or county court, or sheriff, appoints a deputy, it shall be the duty of such official to report the same to the county court of his county, which court shall enter in its minutes the said report. And if said court is of the opinion that the services, or any part thereof, of such deputy should be paid by the county, it shall fix the amount thereof to be paid by the county by an order duly entered, specifying the same, which amount shall be so paid by the county in the same manner as other county charges are paid, as before mentioned.

The provisions of this act shall not apply to the clerks, sheriffs and recorder of conveyances now in office. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

According to interviews given in the Oregonian it is thought there are several discrepancies in the law, and that it will not work well in many instances.

Sheriff Kelly of Multnomah county said:

"My office cannot be run as satisfactory on salary as on fee system," said Sheriff Penumbra Kelly. "The duties of the office are of such a nature and complex character that I think the public would be better satisfied with the fee system. Fully one-half of the work has to be done after 5 P. M. I employ five office deputies and a number of local deputies throughout the county who receive payment in fees for their work. Under the new laws the number of deputies are regulated by the county court, and I do not know whether the local deputies will be abolished or not. I think the Sheriff's salary very small when the responsibility of his position is considered. The law will work a saving in the office, but how much, I cannot tell. Business will have increased by 1894 and more deputies will have to be employed, and no one can tell how much the county will gain in the end."

Assessor Sears said:

"In my opinion the new law will save many thousands of dollars to the county if too many deputies are not allowed in the various offices," said County Assessor G. C. Sears. "The sheriff, I think, should receive more salary than is allowed him, because he is an executive officer, and has to serve papers and is liable to make mistakes which would cost a great deal of money. There will be a great saving in the sheriff's office. Under the Manley bill the sheriff will collect all the state, county, city and school taxes, on which he would receive fees amounting to $8000. All this money will now go to the county treasury."

THE DIFFERENCE.

Queer world this! A lawyer and an editor stood on a street corner and saw a man murdered in cold blood. The murderer is a rich man and after committing the deed he said to the lawyer and editor, "Here are a thousand dollars for each of you; defend me before the court and the people for the crime I have committed." They took the money, and defended him in their own way and according to their own profession—the editor through his paper, the lawyer through his mouth. The murderer, by their joint efforts, was acquitted.

But see the difference; mark the result. The people said: "The editor is a scoundrel and did so for pay. Lo! We will stop his paper and not patronize him." The paper was stopped, the editor was ruined financially and reduced to a pauper. But of the lawyer the people said: "He is an able man, learned in law, and deserves great credit for obtaining the acquittal of a man guilty of murder! We will give him our law business and pay him big fees." They made him a judge, and as such he sent his partner, the editor, to the workhouse, and said he was a bad man, and should not only be deprived of the means of living, but punished. We don't endorse the act of an editor in laboring for what is wrong, but how about the lawyer?—Ex.

The saloon canners have formed a combine. The result of the combine will be to drive a large number of fishermen away from Astoria, as it will be impossible for them to make a living at that place, so it is thought.

ENDEARING TERMS.

The Astoria Herald says:—We don't know who the man is that wrote the article in the Oregonian calling the Astoria pilots, "thieves, pirates and sots," and the Herald has no more to say against him, aside from an opinion that we have formed that he must be a squint-eyed, consumptive liar, with a breath like a buzzard and a record like a convict. He probably means well enough, and if he can evade the penitentiary and the vigilance committee and come to Astoria, bringing his blankets, he is guaranteed a voyage to Liverpool on the first ship that sails from this port, and he won't have to pay a pilot for towing him out over the bar either.
