"There are only fifteen of them!"

Some trading combinations have been made, but they will not work.

Mr. Steinhilber will have a big vote in the north end of the county.

Those who are condemning Coxey should remember John Brown.

How can the HEADLIGHT be expected to work against the HEADLIGHT?

The populists are standing back and laughing while the other fellows fight.

As long as the rankest kickers are nominated for office there will be plenty of kickers.

How can the republicans expect their party to harmonize on a man who always tried to prevent harmony?

The newspapers, irrespective of party, in the Willamette valley, speak in the highest terms of Hon. J. J. Daly.

The men who use their judgment in voting are the safeguard of the country. They are becoming more numerous.

Maybe you think Coxey's army will have no effect on Congress. Well, just notice things closely for the next two years.

Some republicans who have always supported the straight ticket are told their help is not wanted by the combination.

Why can't we all kick and then come into the fold two years from now? That's the way the other fellows do—when they want office.

Why call the Coxeyites anti-workers, as many newspapers do? Sure, they have refused to work in some instances, but suppose our Revolutionary fathers had been diverted from their course because some man offered to pay them for a few days' work! Why, men left their homes, and in many instances good wages, to fight for what they thought was right and $13 per month, during the late war.

It is rumored that J. R. Mills, republican nominee for clerk, will be urged to withdraw from the race by some of the influential republicans.

The Coxey war is bloodless, showing an advanced degree of civilization. There is more true humanity than there was thirty years ago.

The HEADLIGHT will not carry on a personal fight against any of the candidates, but it will uncover their political records and discuss their abilities without fear or favor.

A book agent tried to sell one of the county democratic candidates an encyclopedia yesterday. "No, don't want a cyclopedia. Wouldn't have time to ride it," was the answer of the candidate.—Salem Statesman.

We are afraid that Tom's best speeches and most happily conceived stories will avail nothing this year. Those of the republicans who will be elected will receive larger majorities without the junketing tour.

Last week it was stated in this paper that Brecknridge should come to Tillamook and run for congress. It was a mistake. The item should have read, Brecknridge should come to Tillamook and run for — well, guess what.

If the people want a thing and vote for it, let them have it if it hurts them. That's why the democratic congress should have passed the tariff reduction bill long ago. It is none of congress' business so long as the people want it! The way to educate the people how to vote is to throw the responsibility directly on them. They want nobody standing between them and the fire.

"I've always been a meek and lowly follower of Thomas Jefferson," said a staunch democrat the other day, "but now I am going to vote for Pierce for governor. I think he is the best man."

L. B. Alley will get a big vote.

HEADLIGHT, $1.00.

Hard Times

One Dollar per year will secure the HEADLIGHT now. This arrangement is only temporary, the offer being good until June 15. Who may take advantage of it? Well, all new subscribers, and all old ones by paying up and subscribing for a year in advance. See advertisement on this page.

Special Clubbing Offers.

By special arrangement with the publishers of the Detroit Free Press we are able to offer that famous paper and the HEADLIGHT together for the small sum of $2.15. Those who subscribe in this way will also receive a copy of the "Midway Types" free. Now is time to subscribe.
