Two Opinions.

Various parties are making out slates, prophesying the result of the election. Here are two slates from parties of widely different opinions. The figures at the right are the estimated majorities:

Judge Sappington, 100.
Commissioners Harvey and Alley 200.
Sheriff, Jackson 200.
Clerk, Goyne 175.
Treasurer, Barker 200.
Assessor, Steinhilber 200.
Surveyor, Austin 250.
School Superintendent, Mrs. May 250.
Coroner, C. E. Reynolds 250.
The other fellow's slate is as follows:
Judge, Conder 50
Sheriff, Edwards 50
Commissioners, Alley and Lucy 100.
Clerk, Mills 25.
Treasurer, Barker 50.
Assessor, Steinhilber 200.
School Superintendent, Mrs. May 50.
Coroner, C. E. Reynolds 200.

Now these are the actual figures given by two politicians, and judging from the difference in some instances, no doubt somebody will be badly disappointed.

Yesterday a gentleman came in to stop his paper assigning his reason as follows: "Mr. Coats, who is in with you came to the Fairview republican primary and tried to vote. Walt Smith objected, and Coats swore that he was a republican, and that he had nothing to do with the paper except to act as reporter." It was explained to the gentleman that it was Stoddard of the Advocate, who did that remarkable thing. It is a fact that Stoddard, the owner of the Advocate, voted in the republican primary, claiming he had nothing to do with the paper. It is pretty hard to have the sins of the Advocate heaped upon this office, so we make public the true status of the case.

A Letter from Guild.

Senator Maxwell has received a letter from Mr. Guild, republican candidate for joint representative, and he requests us to say that Mr. Guild is sick, and for that reason has been unable to visit Tillamook. He promises, if elected, however, to come to Tillamook and get acquainted with the people before assuming the duties of his office.

Mr. Maxwell also requests us to publish the following statement, which is self-explanatory:

McMINNVILLE, Ore., May 14, 1894.

We the undersigned nominees for the Legislature on the Republican ticket in Yamhill county, Ore., do hereby pledge ourselves that if elected at the coming June election, we will try all honorable means, use our influence to secure a Representative for Tillamook county in lieu of a Joint Representative between Yamhill and Tillamook counties as it now is.

Notice.

To R. A. M., Johnson Chapter No. 24.
There will be a special convocation of Johnson Chapter No. 24 on Wednesday evening, June 6. Special business.

By order
J. E. SIBLEY, H. P.

The tickets will be very complicated this year, and it will take a Philadelphia lawyer to make one out correctly. There will be many who will make mistakes and vote for persons whom they do not intend. Every man should take one of the colored ballots and make it before he goes into the booth. This will be of great help to prevent making mistakes, and will save much time.
