This office was presented with a fine cheese, made at the Beaver cheese factory. They put them up in good shape, the flavor is fine, and the Beaver cheese is very rich. The factory is making about 300 pounds of cheese per day, and the farmers in that vicinity are making more out of their cows than ever before.

P.H. Messner took charge of the mail route between this city and Tillamook yesterday. He will fill out the unexpired time of the old contractors up to July 1st, and then commence on his own contract. Phil. bought two fine new hacks of Miller Bros. to put on the route, and started for Tillamook Tuesday morning with one of them, as proud as a boy with his first pair of red top boots.—Record

John Hauke, a fisherman who resided on Nestucca, but who is employed at Booth's cannery in Astoria, has been sent for to take care of his children. While he was away these three children ranging from three to fourteen years of age left home. They started for Tillamook on foot, but got a chance to ride part way here. Mr. J. W. Hellenbrand, of Oretown, is here looking after them until Mr. Hauke returns.

Commissioner-Elect L. B. Alley met with quite a misfortune last Friday. His house on the Nehalem burned to the ground, and only a small portion of the household goods were saved. Mr. Alley was in Tillamook, and his sons were away from home. Mrs. Alley and daughters were present, but the fire spread so fast that they could save but little. It is supposed the fire caught from sparks falling on the roof from the kitchen flue.

William Balmer, of Hobsonville, died June 22, aged 54 years. He was born at Newcastle, England, and came to America when 12 years of age, and to Tillamook in 1891. The funeral sermon occurred at Bay City M. E. church last Sunday, Rev. McLachlan officiating, and the remains were interred in Kilchis cemetery. Deceased leaves a wife and five children. He was a member of the English Episcopal church, of Little Falls, Minnesota.

News To Us.

A number of parties are talking of going to the Coast to spend the Fourth. Tillamook City will celebrate with Hon. J. C. Spencer of McMinville as orator, while Hon. Cal. Cooper will yank the pin feathers from the glorious old eagle at Woods. Both are able men, who will give our Tillamook friends a good Geo. Washington speech.—Sheridan Sun.

Oretown.

Mr. Gardner spend a few days in Oregon City last week.

Several camper's wagons have been seen on our roads already.

Many of the neighbors have finished sheep-shearing and disposed of their wool.

We are very indignant down here over the failure of one of the road viewers, appointed and ordered out by the county court, to appear at the place designated to view out and survey the county road to Dolph. This is against our interest and such nonsense will not be tolerated much longer.

Henry Mann has sunk a shaft on Mrs. Arnold's place with the hope of finding coal in paying quantities.

Hebo.

Two more hearts beat as one. J. S. Myers and Eliza Farmer were married Sunday.

Quite a number of the people have bought new ranges. If we could get stoves that would furnish "grub," these hard times, it would be a benefit.

Beaver.

Frank Carter, a brother-in-law of E. F. Lyster, has been visiting in Tillamook. Mr. Henry Tucker went to Salem with him to have his eyes treated.
