

Obituary.

DECEASED:—Mrs. Anna Hadley, wife of C. B. Hadley, in Portland, Ore., Sunday, July 1st, 1894, aged 43 years.

Mrs. Anna Hadley, whose maiden name was Anna Cleasby, was born in Durham county, near Newcastle, England, October 4th, 1850. When she was only two years old her parents removed to America, and settled in Wisconsin. She was married to C. B. Hadley, Nov. 25, 1868, at Pleasant Valley, near Eau Claire, Wisconsin. They had three children, all of whom are living, viz: David, Clark, and Maud, the little girl. Mrs. Hadley's parents died several years ago, and several of her brothers and sisters died. Mrs. C. R. Hunt, of this place, is one of her sisters.

Mr. Hadley and family came to Tillamook twelve years ago, where they have resided, and Mrs. Hadley was strong and healthy until the past year, when her health began to fail rapidly. Last week they started to Portland, hoping the trip would prove beneficial, and expecting to consult the Portland physicians in regard to her case.

As the case was considered very doubtful, an operation was performed, as a last resort, hoping that there might be some chance for saving her. It was useless, however, and she died Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hadley was a kind wife and mother and was devoted to her family who feel the loss keenly. She had very many friends in this community, and the people join in expressing sympathy for the bereaved family.

The remains, accompanied by Mr. Hadley and others, arrived here Tuesday, via the Wilson river road, a large number of the citizens of this place meeting them and joining the procession at Walt Smith's place. The funeral ceremonies occurred Tuesday afternoon, the Cornet Band, the Odd Fellows, and the Firemen joining in the procession. Appropriate ceremonies were held at the M. E. Church, Rev. McLachlan, officiating after which the body was laid to rest in I. O. O. F. cemetery.

The funeral ceremony was very impressive in every particular. The attendance was the largest ever seen at a funeral in this county, and but a few of those present could get into the church during the services. The casket was literally covered with flowers, wreaths, and floral crosses; contributed by the friends of the deceased, and the universal expressions of sorrow and respect, show how Mrs. Hadley was esteemed by the people of this vicinity. Many were the kind and charitable acts of hers while living, yet it was done in a quiet and unassuming way, often unnoticed save by those whom she favored, and the unusual demonstration of respect, shows that this kind of charity is most appreciated.

The new salary system for county officials is a good thing in many ways, but there is a terrible kick about the fee system in the clerk's office. As the law is now the fees going to the county must be always paid in advance, and at the full rate. The clerk must see to this or stand responsible himself. Heretofore the clerk could be lenient to poor people and never charged full rates for most of the work. Now it will cost nearly twice as much to record deeds, and other work in the same proportion. It will work a hardship in many instances, and it is to be hoped that the county court can see its way clear to reduce the fees, although it is very doubtful if they have any such authority, as the old law names the fees, and the new law has nothing in it in the nature of a repeal of the old fee system.

The cause of Mrs. Hadley's fatal illness was cancerous growth just below the stomach. All the medical skill and science available was resorted to, but such cases are always fatal in the end.

Mrs. May assumed the duties of the office of County superintendent on Monday last and will leave her office at residence.

The strike against the Pullman Car Company has extended all over the country, and all railroad business has been stopped. Mail trains are not running, hence the failure to receive any mail in this place for the past few days. LATER—The strike has been settled satisfactorily to all, and trains are running regular again.

Monday evening the A. O. U. W. installed the following officers: A. Letcher, M. W.; Myron Perkins, Foreman; D. T. Edmunds, Recorder; E. E. Selph, Receiver; J. W. Haskins, Financier; G. A. Edmunds, Guide; Chas. Pye, I. W.; J. A. Monroe, P. M. W.; F. Linnville, O. W.

Tom Coates has been sworn in as deputy clerk, and H. F. Goodspeed as deputy sheriff. We hear of no objections to either. The county court fixes the salaries to be paid to the deputies, though it is limited to $600 per year by the law in the case of deputy sheriff. The court made an order allowing Mr. Coates $800 per year as deputy.

Mrs. Libbie Daniels left this city the first part of the week to take charge of the Mountain House on the Tillamook road. Mrs. Daniels has had charge of this house before and travelers can feel assured of good, comfortable accommodations when passing that way. We wish her success.—North Yambill Record.

The Fourth of July was celebrated here in grand shape the program being interesting and well executed in every particular. The plug-ugly parade was simply immense and C. E. Reynolds with his elephant created lots of fun. The crowd was the biggest that was ever in Tillamook. We understand that the Fairview celebration was a grand success also.

A party will start about July 1st to make a trip down the Nehalem river in a skiff, expecting to enjoy fine fishing as they journey along. The boat is now at Forest Grove, and will be hauled out over the old military road to the head waters of the Nehalem, on the summit of the coast range. The trip is not thought to be specially dangerous, but it will be exciting, as there are some rapids in the river, which is rather a fine stream, about like the Clackamas. The stream has been but little fished, and is said to swarm with trout.—Oregonian.

Some depraved scoundrel, not fearing God or respecting the law, surreptitiously and maliciously removed the HEADLIGHT sign from its accustomed place and put it up at a certain dwelling house, far out on the border of the town, sometime during the stillly hours of last Friday night. There is no use casting slurs on respectable people in such a manner. Its getting to be a pretty how-do-ye-do when an honest man can't leave his sign out over night. The deed was no doubt committed by the same parties who put the boat in the street before election, and when our special detective ferrets out the guilty culprits, we shall publish their names if they don't bring the sign back next time they go down there. At any rate, we will give a reward of 15 cents for the arrest and conviction of the miscreants.

Card of Thanks.

We feel grateful to the many kind friends who gave assistance and showed their sympathy and respect at the time of our bereavement and especially, do we feel under obligation to the Band, Odd Fellows, and Firemen.
