

Got the Piles.

Ashland, Wis., June 20, 1894.

Ed. HEADLIGHT:—A gentleman handed me a copy of your paper a few days ago, and in it I saw an advertisement calling for 7,000,000 piling for the Woods & Nestucca R. R. As this is a very big order, and as I understand timber is scarce in your vicinity, I would like to correspond with the R. R. Co. with a view to furnish them. We can load a whale-back steamer on the lakes, send it out the St. Lawrence and around the Horn, and the piling would cost you less than any other way. Find stamp enclosed, and please write me further particulars.

Respectfully

ALEXANDER DUBOIS.

[Well, Aleck, you needn't bother. We have a few piling left here. In fact we have piling to spare. There are seventeen hundred billion acres of piling here, and they are in the way. The piling you'd furnish wouldn't make tooth picks along side of our piling. One of our trees growing in your brush patches would look as big as the tower of Babel. No, we're overstocked with piling just at present. It's not a matter of timber here, but the trouble is to get men to cut it and bring it to market. We've got piling timber here 250 feet long and 8 feet in diameter, straight as an arrow, and your little match wood sapplings, 8 inches in diameter, 30 feet long, scraggly and crooked, wouldn't look well in this country. We burn all such stuff in the brush heaps. Yes, Aleck, there's more timber here in one tree than there is on an acre of your best Wisconsin pineries. Ed.]

Those Piling Again.

Gates, Oregon, June 25, 1894.

Editor Tillamook HEADLIGHT.

Dear Sir:—I have seen in your paper an advertisement, calling for bids on piling timber.

I am a timber contractor and can give good reference if required. Will you kindly give me all information you can about the parties wanting the piling as I would very much like to put in a bid. Yours in hast.

Respectfully

R. G. PIERCE.

I would respectfully announce to tramps, anarchists, defeated candidates and the traveling public in general, that I throw up the job of governor of Tillamook county. I step down and let go—do not want any of the pudding in mine. Can commit suicide myself if I like, and save the reputation of some poor struggling but ambitious anarchist,

Ex. Gov. D. C. BOWERS.

Headlight Flashes.

When the new sheriff came in a tenant came for the jail. H. B. Karr, who assaulted Editor Johnson, of the Nehalem Times, was fined $5.00. He refused to pay the fine and constable Geo. Bailey brought him to this city yesterday, where he will lie until the Majesty of the law is vindicated. The fine and costs amount to $37. Mr. Karr says he has the money to pay his fine, but will not do it for the reason that the prosecution was unjust.

FOR EXCHANGE:—Being anxious to engage in outdoor occupation, the Editor of this paper offers to exchange the HEADLIGHT plant, subscription list, good will, etc., for dairy cows. This is an excellent opportunity for the Farmer's Alliance people who want a paper of their own. Each one can put in a good cow, not feeling the loss, and own stock in the paper. Terns given on application.

Note the descriptive matter in this issue. Don't fail to send a copy of this paper to one of your distant friends. We send out 20 to 40 copies each week to parties who are likely to become interested in this country, and hope that everyone will take the same interest in the matter that we do.

Fill up on meat while it is cheap. The Central Market is selling good beef at very low prices. They kill a beef every day, so they always have a good supply of fresh meat. Eat a little good meat every day and it will impart physical strength and vigor into you.

FOR SALE:—The best farm on Wilson river, containing 92 acres, all rich bottom land, handy to town, on good road, one mile from cemetery. If you want a place come and see it. A part down, and the balance in easy payments.

Kinney's big cannery in Astoria was burned Saturday morning. Loss, $70,000, half covered by insurance. As Mr. Kinney owns other cannery buildings it will not stop fishing operations by him.

Dr. E. M. Cheadle, one of the best dentists in Portland, will be in Tillamook about July 15 to do dental work and finish the work done by Dr. C. W. Hunt. Dr. Cheadle comes well recommended.

There is considerable inquiry for lands and lots. Those having property for sale should see Theo. Steinhilber, who is likely to find a buyer for all bargains in real estate.

Before you go to see your girl, step into Knoll's bakery and get some of that nice candy for her. You might take along an orange, a few nuts, and some chewing gum, also.

The Nehalem people are issuing a magnificent poster for the purpose of advertising their country and beach resorts.

BAY CITY PEOPLE:—You can get good fresh meats every day at Alderman & Higginbotham's Bay City Market.

Huckleberries, strawberries, gooseberries, raspberries and blackberries taken on subscription at this office.

Monday morning the old rascals were turned out and new ones put in, at the court house.

County court met this week and the newly elected officials were sworn in.

The assessor and his deputy are very busy now on the new assessment roll.

Mr. Freeman will soon have the bridge across Wilson river completed.

Steamer Elmore came in Monday, leaving out Tuesday.
