E. G. Baker and Miss Ruby Lattie were married last Sunday.

W. R. Helvie, formerly of the Advocate, has moved to Yamhill County.

Marriage license was issued July 31 to John K. Whiteman and Lottie Gardner of Oretown.

Mrs. Dr. Wise and children took down with mumps at Hillsboro on their way to Tillamook.

E. E. Selph has been appointed deputy district attorney, and will attend to the duties of that office.

The report that Debs is an unnatu-ralized foreigner is a mistake. He was born and raised in Terre Haute, Indiana.

O. Heins, the photographer, who was hurt at the Nestucca grade accident, is recovering, thought he was badly bruised.

Kandies Kakes, Krackers, Knickknacks, Kongealed Kreant, Karamels and Kalifornia Knuts, at Knoell's Kandy Kitchen.

On and after Aug. 6th, Dr. Wise will be ready to attend to business and make new appointments with those he could not fill on account of sickness.

Found about two miles this side of Bay City, some new underclothing. Finder can have same by calling at this office proving property, and paying for this notice.

Dr. Wise had the mumps last week at Mr. Illingworth's place on Wilson river. To prevent giving the disease to others he will not be in town till next Saturday.

The authorities should not allow the principal streets to be used for a coral for breaking fractions horses. It endangers the lives of women and children who may be on the streets.

This office has just finished printing 7000 letter heads for the use of the county officers. The heads contain a finely engraved cut showing coast scenery, especially designed for the purpose.

Remember that the HEADLIGHT takes the part of the people, and that it does not fear to express opinions, no matter who it hits. Yet it gives every man a show to present his side of question even if it doesn't agree with the editor.

Three stages from Forest Grove, one from North Yamhill, loaded with summer visitors, besides 35 wagon loads of campers, arrived in this city Tuesday, and large numbers are coming every day. Most of them will strike tent at Netarts.

Those who would like to form a club for the study and practice of short hand, or stenography, should see the editor of this paper. The necessary instruction can be obtained without cost, and the only expense will be to secure a suitable place for meeting about two nights in each week. The study and practice of short hand is intensely interesting, the art is easily acquired, and it is very useful for anyone engaged in business or professional work.

There will be a Grand Entertainment Friday night, Aug. 3, in Latimer's Hall, by Prof. D. Berger, the renowned pianist, vocalist, and comedian, more familiarly known as 'Little Piano Dave', imitator of birds, banjos and other musical instruments. Prof. Berger won first prize at Chicago and at the Midwinter Fair. He will make you laugh with 'Carl Dunder, as the Cheeky Drummer.' Admission 25 and 15 cents. At the rink.
Dance at close.
