NOTHING

The way the mail schedule is arranged, the North Yambill hotels do not derive much benefit from the Tillamook stage travel. The stop-overs are made either at the Mountain House on the other side, or at Crowson's on this side. It is a little hard on North Yamhill.—Healdight. Yambill Record.

It's a matter of news however.

A RIDICULOUS BLUNDER.

The following from the Oregonian of recent date is as great a misconception as can be imagined:

Mrs. County School Superintendent May, of Tillamook county, against whom the paper thereabout are securing for him the support of contest has been brought, delivered an address at a school picnic last week which so moved upon the Advocate that it remarks:

"Mrs. May shows herself a woman of ability and genius and well qualified for the office she holds. We will say here that genius has been recently defined as "a talent for body since Buchanan's time. good, hard work, with the power of concentrating application." If it is unconstitutional for a woman to hold this office, as some of our worthy brothers wish to prove, the constitution must be amended."

You can't get the dollars if they are not in circulation.

POLITICAL POINTERS

The republicans of Missouri and the democrats of Indiana have declared in favor of silver.

The republicans of Tennessee have fused with the populists.

Kolb, the populist candidate for governor of Alabama, will contest the election. It is claimed Oates was elected by gross frauds.

Every political convention west of the Mississippi river, several in the south and several in the east, have declared in favor of silver.
