IF SOME

Of our country people are tired living amongst poor folks to exchange their ranches for city property located in the most fashionable parts of Portland and Vancouver. Or, if

You wish

To ride behind a pair of fast steeds trade your dairy farm for a livery stable in one of the most thriving towns in the Willamette Valley.

My list of lands has increased during the last week and I have now a few rare bargains in agricultural lands. Think of it, 73 acres of rich bottom land, 1/2 mile from town, for $6.00. Now is the time to buy.

Women School Superintendents.

In the following named counties women hold the office of school superintendent, having been elected last June and in these cases no contest has been made. Women have frequently held the office before in this state without the matter being questioned:

Miss Alice L. Carson, Coos; Mrs. Lucy Gordon, Klamath; Miss Susan W. Moore Malheur; Miss Harriette C. Woodruff, Umatilla; Miss Nellie Stevens, Union; Mrs. P. E. Boyd, Wallawa.

In Morrow County Miss Anna Bal-singer was elected, and the man who ran against her, contested her election, but the courts there decided in her favor and she holds the office. In Tillamook Mrs. Carry May was elected, but the contest against her was successful, and she is the only one elected that is not holding the office.

Capt. Dawson's Work.

Capt. J. J. Dawson, of Bay City, has submitted some very interesting manuscripts regarding the improvements on Tillamook bay, and some old copies of the San Francisco Call, wherein are descriptions of Tillamook county, to this office for examination. They are too voluminous for publication, however, anyone wishing to become posted upon the history or resources of this county should see Capt. Dawson. During his residence in this county he has answered nearly 2000 letters which were sent as inquiries regarding this locality.
