COUNTY WARRANTS PAYABLE.

The following county warrants have been called long since, and are good for cash at the county treasurer's office, though interest ceased on them long ago. These orders were presented for payment from 1886 to 1891.

Old series. Nos. 1282, 1475, 1676, 1122, 1803, 1815, 1828, 1025, 15, 16, 121, 52, 1749, 297, 285, 293, 590, 321, 317, 318, 330, 346, 1597, 1769, 730, 761, 931, 1065, 1135, 1832, 1278, 1339, 1327, 1344.

No doubt many of these orders have been lost or destroyed, or the parties holding them have died or moved away. Some may not have been cashed through neglect.

The county holds this money from year to year, waiting to pay these orders, and cannot or does not make any use of it. There should be a provision that the county could use this money to cancel other orders in case five years has elapsed since the orders were first called. These orders call for sums ranging from $1 00 to $45 00, and the interest on the largest one is $10 77, though it has not been increasing since the treasurer made the call for it. The whole amount of cash not called for by warrant holders prior to 1892 amounts to $492 81 besides the interest, which is nearly $100.

Council Meeting.

At the council meeting Saturday night the subject of the Mill Co's water franchise came up, and considerable interest was manifested. G. O. Nelson submitted a proposition to take the same kind of a franchise that has been formulated for the Mill Co. and pay $2500 for the same in small yearly installments. The whole matter was deferred until the adjourned meeting which will occur tomorrow (Friday) night.

The proposed amendment to the fire escape ordinance was read for the first time. The ordinance as originally passed would have worked a severe hardship on M. H. Larsen and others, necessitating almost impossible and very expensive changes in their buildings. It is the purpose of the amendment to alleviate these objections, and yet leave the ordinance effective.

The Connecting Road.

A new road has been surveyed from section 18, township, 5 north, range, 8 west, in a southwesterly direction to section 9, township, 4 north range 8 west a distance of about 10 miles says the Astorian. As soon as arrangements can be made according to the Cross law the road will be constructed. This will bring the road about five miles from the present road which crosses the Nehalem near Buchanan's or Scovell's, 12 miles from the river's mouth. The route was surveyed by Engineer Raymond, and goes through the country known as "Russian Settlement," one of the finest timber belts on the coast. The road will be comparatively level, and in only one place, about 150 yards in extent, is there more than an 18-per-cent grade. An effort will be made to extend the road four miles to God's valley, near the Tillamook line.

In a later issue the Astorian says:

Just now the people of the lower Nehalem and Arch Cape country are at fever heat over the road question. They are trying to solve the question of how to get from Cannon Beach, which ends at Arch Cape, around the Necarney mountain to Nehalem. Some favor the back trail, and others the route over the abrupt and almost perpendicular face of Necarney. Mr. E. G. E. Wist, of Nehalem, has written a letter to Judge Gray favoring the route east of the mountain, starting at a point above Nehalem City, and coming out north of Arch Cape, a distance of about nine miles. He has already spent considerable money having a blaze line run between the two points. There are others, though, who favor the line over Necarney mountain and are working hard to attract the attention of the county officials of both counties to the proposition. Mr. J. W. Walsh, of Arch Cape, has a long and interesting article in the Nehalem Times this week, in which he points out the advantages and disadvantages of the various routes proposed. He adds a strong argument in favor of the road around the face of Necarney mountain.

Portland Prices.

There is little change change in the Portland market.

Butter remains at the same prices quoted last week, there being little demand except for creamery butter which commands 40 to 45 cents per roll. Dairy butter is slow sale at 30 to 35.

Wheat—All markets have ruled quite steady during the week. There is a steady demand here at quotations.

Oats—The market is steady at quotations. Choice qualities are in small supply. The San Francisco market continues steady at a fair demand.

Barley—The market is weak with only a small demand at $12 00 to $12 50 per ton for good feed. The California market is also dull and weak.

Poultry—All kinds are in steady demand at quotations. Chickens, broilers, are wanted.

Eggs—Have sold at 10 cents for several days with increased receipts. Some sales are made at 9 1/2 cents.

Potatoes—Choice Burbanks sell at 45 to 47 1/2 cents; inferior are slow sale at 25 to 35 cents per sack. The California market is steady.

Hay—Only choice timothy is wanted. Grain and cheat hay are dull sale at any price.

Green Apples—There is a demand for large and fancy at $1 50 to $2 00; poor to good sell at 75 cents to $1 50 per box.

Coal Oil—Has advanced to 20 cents per gallon in tins.

Smoked Meats and Lard—The market is firm in sympathy with Eastern markets, at 12 to 12 1/2 cents for hams; sides 9 to 9 1/2 cents; shoulders 5 1/2 to 6 cents; pure lard, 10 to 10 1/2 cents. Country cured meats and lard sell at lower prices.

Dried Fruits—The market is well supplied with all kinds. Sales are dull.

Flour—Continues dull and weak. Leading Valley and Eastern brands are jobbing at $2 00 to $2 30 per bid.

The above are wholesale quotations.

Tillamook Market.

The general state of the market is about the same as last week. Good dairy butter 25 to 30 cents, creamery 40 to 45 cents, eggs 10 cents, good potatoes 25 to 30 cents per bushel. No demand for chickens except at meat markets, where dressed chickens generally find ready sale.

Going Fast.

From the way the reserved seats are going it looks as if May's academy hall will be filled next Saturday night. It will be the best show ever given in Tillamook.

Low Freights.

The steamer Truckee now brings freight from Portland or San Francisco to Holstonville for $3 00 per ton. The company proposes to do a big share of the coast freighting business, and this cut will be of much benefit to the merchants of this place.

County warrants bought by Beals Bros.

Bay City.

We expect a creamery here in the near future.

O. Young is in Portland to see his mother who is dangerously ill. He also expects to purchase a large stock of general merchandise while there.

The Bay City Cooperage Co. expects to run their mill all summer as we hear they have made a large contract for logs. We wish them success.

J. H. Bridgeford expects to move his office. He evidently sees a big boom coming and wants to be near the P. O. and telegraph office.

Or, Words to This Effect.

Following is the Latin oration delivered by Bert Severance at the Arbor day exercises, or words to that effect.

Arboris in foliis, fluviales Parus ad undas.
Paros et Salices carmine consociat.
Huic ego: "Dic volucris! quoniam tibi causa sedendi?
Quid mihi, sic Paros to Salicesque sonas?
Dic avicella! tibi mens imbecillior exstat?
Durius absorptus vermiculane gravat?"
Verberat in pectus, ramo de fixus in illo
(Cum Paro est iterum commemorata Salix).
Circumstat gelidus rorantia tempora sudor.
Parorum et Salicem, vae mihi utrumque genus!
Suspirans, lacrymans, singulta guttura torquen,
Huic se praecepitem fert perituris aquis;
Quam parat ipse sibi resonante tibi vocibus urna;
"Pare! Salix! iterum Pare! iterumque Salix!"

Right on the Swap.

Eighty acres of land for cash cheap, or on time entirely. Will trade it for other land, cattle, horses or anything valuable. The land is on a fern hill, has good building site, view of ocean, fine spring, no stumps or logs, excellent pasture land, part of it suitable for oats or barley, situated on county road between Big Nestucca and Little Nestucca. Call at this office for particulars.

Fought For Love.

Mr. Bogert and M. H. Larsen had a little unpleasantness Monday night. It seems that Mr. Bogert was sparking one of the waitresses against Mr. Larsen's wishes, which led to hard words, and finally to blows. Bogert, being young, and strong, escaped punishment, while Mr. Larsen wears one eye in mourning.

Tillamook's Salubrious Climate.

Sheridan San: W. F. D. Jones, the HEADLIGHT editor, has a neat sketch of the life of the—"Oregon Aemrit Poet"—a man named Smith, in the last Overland Monthly. The sketch is interesting, and proves that Bro. Jones is possessed of literary ability of no mean order.

Wooding Arrested.

C. T. Wooding, of Aberdeen, who was arrested a few days ago charged with perjury, had his hearing before justice Bignold, and was bound over to the superior court under $1000 bonds, which he furnished. Mr. Gooding has large timber interests in Tillamook county.

Send Them Early.

Those who send in items or notices for publication should see that they get here by Wednesday noon, and only short notices or items can be used after that time. Long articles should be in this office several days before publication.

Boats to Let.

Don't borrow a boat! It is an unpleasant thing to do, and few people like to loan the use of a boat. Save yourself being refused. Ben Perry lets boats at reasonable rates. See him if you wish to hire a boat.

Notice of Teacher's Examination.

Teachers are hereby notified that the next regular quarterly examination will be held the 2nd Wednesday in May, at Tillamook Oregon. LESTER P. SMITH, School Supt.
