L. S. Darland has set a fish trap at the mouth of Mailboat slough to catch herring. This fish is known to be very abundant in the bay, and to be of superior quality to those caught on the Sound which sell for 2 cents per pound.—South Bend Journal.

It is reported that Jacob Kamm has under contemplation the building of a fast steamer, to make 25 miles an hour, to ply between Astoria and Portland. The boat will be a propeller, with a hull of steel. It is stated that Captain James Gray is now looking up all the necessary details incidental to the construction of a boat.—Cathlamet Gazette.

Wm. Rhoades and Wm. Hendricks, (generally known as Buffalo Bill) of Bay City, left that place Wednesday for the sand spit, but the bay being very rough, their boat capsized and the men were left hanging to the boat for about an hour, when they were picked up by the launch Irene. Mr. Hendricks was almost helpless when found, but is recovering.

The grand commander of the Indian war veterans of the North Pacific coast, Mr. T. A. Wood, of Portland, desires information about every veteran who would be affected by the bill introduced by Representative Hermann to pension all surviving veterans and the widows of veterans of the Indian wars. The name, age, and address, and the name of the captain of the company served in are wanted. Names may be left at this office.

The shorthorn breeders have taken a wise step in preparing to make a separate breeding class for such of their cows as show marked dairy tendencies. The shorthorn was undoubtedly originally an excellent dairy animal, and is so still abroad where it is chief source of supply for the London milk trade. In this country, however, the breed has been developed chiefly on beef lines to the injury of its dairy qualities. The restoration of these will be an advantage for, taken as a whole, the dairy shorthorn is about the best general purpose cow, having a large capacity for giving milk, yet when the latter begins to fail, being readily dried off and fattened so as to produce beef of the very best quality.—Ex.

The man was no fool who said that as long as there's life there's trouble and taxes. A widow is hardly ever satisfied with her name. It is not necessary to have four legs to be a hog. A man with a red leg seldom talks too much. If none but virtuous men go to heaven it will be a mighty lonesome place for old maids. Office seeks a man with about the same energy that a rogue seeks a policeman. When a man marries the second time he always makes an excuse of some kind to his friends. Women talk of owing other women a call in the same way that men speak of owing other men a grudge. A man will look through his pockets four times before he will give his wife his coat to sew a button on.—Ex.

The Woodmen should turn out in full force at the meeting tomorrow (Friday) night, as there is business of importance to transact, and it is the last meeting before the dedication social. Invitations have been sent out, except to those who are Woodmen, or those who have been voted upon favorably by the Camp, and all the members and members elect will have invitations handed to them at the meeting tomorrow night—at any rate the committee consider that the Woodmen are all invited or should invite themselves, though each of them will probably want one of the cards as memento. It may be necessary to get a larger hall for the dance on that night, but if such is the case a larger hall will be secured.

One hundred free subscriptions to the National Recorder are being given away to paid up subscribers and to new subscribers to this paper. First come, first served. We shall have to discontinue the proposition as soon as the 100 subscriptions are taken, and they are given only to those who take enough interest to call or write for it. Of course we hate to refuse anyone, however, it is hardly fair for those who get the Ladies Home Ideal free to come and ask for the National Recorder also. It is to be hoped that those who have received the free subscriptions will give the others a chance. Sample copies of the National Recorder were sent to our subscribers last week. Subscribers to the Headliner are likely to get sample copies of various good papers.

Suit was brought by C. M. Keep in the state circuit court in Portland Tuesday against Napoleon Davis to enforce a contract alleged to have been entered into by Mr. Davis to purchase the bank of Forest Grove. It is dated December 3, 1892, is signed by Mr. Keep and Mr. Davis and specifies as follows: "Charles M. Keep sells bank, banking business and all pertaining thereto, including insurance business, eight acres of land near C. F. Clapp's residence, and the Parker notes are to be taken as they appear on the books of the bank, all other notes to be made satisfactory to purchaser, to Napoleon Davis, for $9000." Mr. Keep charges that he tendered to Mr. Davis a full and complete performance of the contract and that Mr. Davis refused to accept or in any manner perform his agreement and asks a decree requiring specific performance.—Forest Grove Times.

The fishermen engaged in fishing in the Willamette between this place and Portland have organized a union of their own, independent of the Columbia River Fishermen's Protective Association and its members, and the securing of better market advantages to the fishermen of the Willamette. The organization has some 35 members, and expects to have between 60 and 70 members when the fishing season opens. The president is Jonathan Humphrey, of Oregon City; vice-president, John Erikson, Oswego; secretary, M. Richards, Oregon City. The central board is composed of M. A. Magoon, W. B. Jennings and J. Haines of Oswego. The financial affairs of the association are in their hands, and they also act as a board of arbitrators to settle any difficulty between the members. The association starts with flattering prospects for its success, and its promoters hope to make it a permanent fixture and capable of doing much good to the fishermen.—Oregon City Enterprise.

A tired stomach is very much like a sprained ankle. If you suffer from any of the symptoms of dyspepsia your stomach is tired. It needs a crutch. We must relieve it of all work for a time, or until it is restored to its natural strength. To do this successfully, we must use a food which is already digested outside of the body and which will aid the digestion of other food that may be taken with it. Such a product is the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

The Shakers have utilized the digestive principles present in plants for the manufacture of this article, and its success has been truly phenomenal. You can try it for the nominal sum of 10 cents, as sample bottles are sold by all druggists at this price.

The Woodmen have an interesting program prepared for their social, and it is expected they will have a grand time. Selling the baskets will be an interesting feature, and those who want to dance can keep it up as long as they wish.

NESTUCCA NEWS.

(From the Ocean Wave.)

There have been some homesteads taken near Woods lately, and still there is more land to take. Of course the best is always taken first.

The people of Woods were treated to some good talks, on Tuesday evening last, on the principles and workings of the order of the Woodman of the world by Mr. Finley and Dr. Linton, no doubt there will be a camp organized here in the near future.

The Lucy boys, John and Albert, have gone trapping up the head waters of the Big Nestucca river. They went Tuesday morning.

We are told that George Buffin's house on Cedar creek was burned last Saturday with all his household goods leaving the family homeless.

Charley Colton has got home again from Tillamook. He looks as natural as two peas. [Sic]

If this favorite son business is only being worked for a little personal free advertising it's all right; but it is clear from the number engaged in the business that all of them can't get cabinet positions.

We are told that James McGhee of Sand Lake, has been ordered to vacate his ranch in 30 days. He took a pre-emption claim a few years ago built a good house and barn on it has put up a nice young orchard which is just now coming into bearing, and is getting fixed quite comfortably. But he failed to make final proof and pay for the land at the time prescribed by law for proving up, and another man has filed on the property and giving McGhee notice to leave. McGhee gets no compensation for the years of labor put upon the farm.

Mr. Mizner has returned from California.

Mr. Penter has recently lost two horses with lung fever.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Mr. A. Commons on the evening of the 14th, it being his birthday. A large number of friends were present who helped to make Mr. Commons feel younger instead of older. On the same evening a large party of young folks this place and Meda crossed the bay to the home of Mr. A. Gage where they danced until morning.

Capt Crim has gone down to his homestead at Salmon river to make improvements and Mr. Oscar Faulconer of Dolph was seen going in the same direction with a pack-horse.

Quite a number of people went up to Woods to the dance on the evening of the 21st. All seems satisfied with the enjoyment they had.
