COUNTY ITEMS.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS.
A Brief Glimpse at Last Weeks Happenings.

Glencora Gleanings

A camping and fishing party from Gales Creek were at McNamer's camp this week. The party consisted of Mr.
Burke, Mr. T. Hines, two of Mr. Powell's boys, and some others.

The steelhead salmon are fine now but the trout are poor, as this is their spawning season.

The crocus and daffodils are budded for bloom in our gardens. The buds are swelling on the maples. Also the Synthyris, our first spring wild flower, has been in bloom for a week or more.

Cattle are looking well. This has so far been a very mild winter for stock.

Woods Wavelets.
(FROM THE OCEAN WAVE)

We understand Nehalem is to have a cheese factory soon.

Krebs Brothers say that their new mill at Little Nestucca is now running and that they are now making an excellent quality of lumber as they have the best of timber and an abundance of it.

N. L. Fletcher lost about eight or ten bushels of potatoes while he was on a visit to Three Rivers for a few days. We have heard of other petty thieving around town of late. Some one ought to set a bear trap for the gentleman.

E. E. Gooding started with a band of sleep Sunday to Three Rivers, where he has recently taken a homestead.

Oretown Offerings

Johnie Whiteman returned from California last week and reports his mothers health improving.

A party was held at the home of Mrs.
L. Commons Friday, Jan. 12.

Our mail failed to arrive on Thursday of last week owing to the severe storm and high water. Thunder and hail storms are more frequent here than in past years.

George Mizner and wife returned from Salem last Tuesday.

The Robinson boys from Clackamas Co. have captured a pair of Arctic Owls.
They are alive and have a ravenous appetite. Mr. Robinson intends to take them to the valley and sell them.

A petition is being circulated and numerously signed, to have a new road supervisor appointed.

The Seventh Day Adventists are still holding services every evening at the Oretown school-house.

The little son of Andrew Commons, who some time since ran the prong of a pitchfork into his eye is much better.
He will not lose his eyesight.

Spiritualistic demonstrations are entertaining many of the young people in this neighborhood lately.

Beaver Budget.

W. T. West was up to Blaine a few days last week doing carpenter work for Geo. Mowers.

E. W. Brown has been quite poorly but is better at present.

No difference how it rains, blows or snows our mail carrier, G. W. Wallace, is right on the dot.

Beaver has made a new departure.
We have a furniture factory under the management of Messrs Purcell, Finley and Mills.

Joe Bixby, having bid the lowest, $67, was awarded the contract to build the addition to our schoolhouse.

Larkspur is coming up; look out!
Alvia Finley, who went from here to Stuart, Ohio, last fall to marry a lady residing there, expects to return soon and make his home here. Come on, Alvia, you will be more than welcome by all.

Mrs. Edith Coulson, our acknowledged best gardener of Beaver, is already beginning to make garden. Let us all take her good example.

Mrs. H. S. Newman of Tillamook is visiting in Bay City.

The revival services are to be continued the remainder of the week.

T. A. Moore of Nehalem spent a few days in our city.

Maurice Leach is prepared to go to logging as soon as weather permits.

There was a sufficient fall of snow last Friday to whiten Bay City Heights.

The majority of the population of Bay City has been prostrated with la grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Geinger have returned from their Eastern trip. They were pleased to reach our mild climate again as they found the East extremely cold.

The Truckee mill did not start Monday, owing to the illness of engineer A.
Campbell.

Emma Items.

We are having high water this week and lots of wet weather.

The U. S. Government has established a new post office in our midst, with J. D. Clitwood postmaster. The name of the office is Emma. So there will be no more Slab Creek items; they will come under the head of "Emma."

The recent bad weather has caused many persons to take bad colds. John Westenberger has been quite unwell of late; he has been nursing the grippe.

Mr. D. C. McNeil has done a lot of slashing this winter; Joe Altenberger, Steve Bauer, Anton Resch, Sloan, and Clitwood.

Mr. J. S. Stephens, of Tillamook City, was in town last week doing business with the board of school directors.
They are purchasing some school apparatus through Mr. Stephens.

Nehalem Notes

(From the Nehalem Times.)

H. F. L. Logan, the Seaside sawmill man, has just returned from a three months trip to England.

The schooner Rio Rey sailed from San Francisco for this port on the 9th. The Seven Sisters is also chartered for this port.

Wm. Armstrong has donated two acres of land to the Woodmen for a cemetery.
The boys will clear and fence the tract and lay it off in lots.

T. G. Moore started Saturday for North Yamhill where he will remain until spring when he expects to go to Rossland, B. C.

C. H. Wheeler arrived in from Astoria Wednesday via Seaside. He says the tug will be in as soon as the weather moderates. Capt. Webber, formerly of the schooner Conanza, is in command.

Higginbotham & Murphy Bros. have opened up a new logging camp at Himp-le & Wheeler's mill. The timber will be taken from the mill company's land adjoining the mill. They are cutting timber, making roads etc. when the weather is favorable, and will not begin hauling until spring opens up.

Henry Crenshaw, with his accustomed energy, is first to do his plumbing in readiness for the city water.
Everybody wants the water, but all are waiting till the last minute. There will be a grand rush at the last moment to get plumbing done, and somebody ill have to wait. The water will soon be here. Better get ready for it by getting your plumbing done at once.

The patronage of the HEADLIGHT has been such and the subscription list has so increased within the past few months that the publishers feel that they can afford to increase the size of the paper and make other material improvements. Within six weeks or sooner if the water from which we expect to derive power is brought to the city, the paper will be increased one half in size and much choice reading matter will be added. The change will necessitate so much additional press work that it will be impossible to make it until power can be obtained for the presses.

Allen House Guests.

L. J. Smith, Hobsonville; Wm. Heitmuller, Ocean Beach; G. M. Cobb, Nehalem; F. Allender, Tillamook River; Ben Burner, Pleasant Valley; H. W.
Gleason, San Francisco; H. Orchard, T.
E. Heigles, Portland, E. S. Blake, H.
B. Johnson, City Jos. Beggs, Barnegat; Miss Mary Abplanalp, Portland; Wm.
Haskins, Miami.

Bay City Breezes.

A sister of postmaster Hicks arrived on last trip of the Elmore.

A number of passengers are awaiting the Chilkat.

TOWN COUNCIL.

RECORD OF ITS LAST MEETING.
Awards the City Printing to the Headlight.

The town council met in regula session last Monday evening, all the members being present.

There was but little regular business aside from reading the minutes. The matter of the clash between the city and county authorities relative to the collection of poll tax was informally discussed. The opinion was freely expressed that the action of the county commissioners in levying a poll tax upon our people in addition to the poll tax already levied by the city, was unwarranted by law and the unanimous sentiment was against the payment of such poll tax. It is absolutely certain that the men of Tillamook will refuse to pay a double poll tax.

The only distinctively new business attended to was the reading of the bids for doing the city printing. The bid of the HEADLIGHT was the first opened. It was somewhat lengthy and his honor, the city Recorder, demurred somewhat at reading it. He stubbed his toes on several of the hard words and felt disposed to give it up, but councilman Hadley urged him to keep on and grind out the whole gist, and he kept at it. The editor of the HEADLIGHT sat by and groaned like a martyr at the Recorder's construction of his carefully penne'd effusion but he had to take it, only objecting when the Recorder made him say that the finances of the city were in a critical condition,—whether that critical condition arose from the hands they were in, or from natural causes or wasting disease, deponent didn't say. However, the job was finally finally finished and the Recorder drew a long sigh of relief. The HEAD-LIGHT offered to do all the job printing at actual cost and the publishing of notices for the magnificent sum of $0,000, 000 per annum. Edmunds & Co. didn't even offer $5.00 for the privilege of doing the work, but had the temerity to ask a dollar to do it, and they were promptly counted out, and the HEAD-LIGHT designated as the official paper and awarded the printing.

Councilman Reynolds wanted an anti-hen ordinance. He thought hens were dangerous animals to run at large, they were obnoxious, obstreperous, irresponsible, destructive, and positively dishonest. He proposed this summer to raise low-necked squashes, early rose pumpkins, and all sorts of truck, and he didn't propose to have any dod gasted hens scratching them up. People who kept chickens should either keep a poke on them or keep 'em shut up, and he would sacrifice his kingdom or knock out the hens. Councilman Hadley didn't believe in curtailing the liberty of the old hens. If they wanted to scratch, let 'em; if they wanted to cackle, let 'em; it is a free country, and he would fight a hen ordinance. Why not build nests and let the visiting hens be deceived into depositing their fruit in 'em? But Reynolds said such a suggestion was unworthy of a Christian such as himself and he wouldn't heed it. The hen matter remains unsettled.

There being no further business, the council adjourned.
